THE GENERAL BOARD convened in annual session in the Assembly Room of the Iroquois Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y., Saturday, October 13, 1906, at 4 P. M. We append the

MINUTES OF THE MEETING OF THE GENERAL BOARD OF MANAGERS

Meeting called to order by S. M. Cooper, of Ohio, who stated that in the absence of the one who was to preside, a nomination for Chairman was in order. Thereupon, Thos. W. Phillips, of Pennsylvania, was unanimously elected.

Francis M. Biddle, of Pennsylvania, was chosen secretary.

Prayer was offered by C. L. Loos, of Kentucky.

H. A. Denton, of Missouri, and J. A. Joyce, of Pennsylvania, were elected a committee on enrollment, and Walter M. White, Robert S. Latimer, and A. I. Myhr were elected a committee on nominations.

The Annual Report of the Acting Board was then presented by Wm. J. Wright, and upon motion the same was adopted and ordered presented to the convention.

The Annual Report of the Church Extension Board was then read by Geo. W. Muckley, and upon motion the same was approved and referred to the convention. This action included the recommendation of Secretary Muckley that Church Extension be given a separate corporate existence instead of being an adjunct to the American Christian Missionary Society, as at present.

The Annual Report of the Board of Ministerial Relief was read by A. L. Orcutt, and upon motion the same was adopted and ordered placed before the convention.

The Annual Report of Statistician G. A. Hoffmann was then presented, and upon motion the same was accepted and referred to the convention.

Committee on Enrollment reported present eight Life Members, twenty-five Life Directors, eleven from State Boards, eighteen delegates from churches. Moved and seconded report be adopted. Carried.

Committee on Nominations presented the following report: For chairman, Thos.

W. Phillips, of Pennsylvania; for secretary, P. A. Cave, Kentucky. Moved and seconded report be adopted. Carried.

Moved and seconded that Dr. Eli H. Long be elected recording secretary. Carried.

Wm. J. Wright then presented the following resolution: "That a large, impartial, representative and competent committee be appointed, whose task it shall be to consider faithfully all our organized interests, and report at the next annual convention a new and better scheme of offerings which, we hope, will hurt none; but will, if possible, prove of advantage to all, but will at least help some of those which now suffer because of their poor location."

Moved and seconded that a committee be appointed to take up the suggestion of Secretary Wright to prepare a new plan of taking the offerings—the Chair to take time to select the committee. Carried.

The Chairman at length appointed the following Committee:

C. J. TANNAR, Detroit Mich., Chairman.
 I. J. SPENCER, Lexington, Ky.
 E. L. POWELL, Louisville, Ky.
 S. H. BARTLETT, Cleveland, O.
 W. R. WARREN, Pittsburg, Pa.
 G. W. MUCKLEY, Kansas City.
 GEO. B. RANSHAW, Cincinnati, O.

A. M. Harvuot, of Ohio, moved the adoption of the following resolution:

"Resolved, That we earnestly recommend to the board of Ministerial Relief that they employ a secretary for all his time and adopt such other means as are necessary to present the work more fully to all the churches, with the hope that not less than $25,000 be raised next year." Motion seconded and carried.

S. M. Cooper, of Ohio, moved the adoption of the following resolution:

"That a committee of three be appointed to ascertain whether the Board of Church Extension can legally continue its work should it separate itself from the AMERICAN CHRISTIAN MISSIONARY SOCIETY, and in event this should be found impracticable, to ascertain whether the Board of Church Extension can be legally empowered to execute all papers required in its work: said committee to report the result of its findings with recommendations to this Board at its next meeting."

Motion seconded and carried. The following committee was appointed:

S. M. COOPER, Chairman.
 CAREY E. MORGAN,
 G. W. MUCKLEY.

P. Y. Pendleton, of Kentucky, presented the following resolution and moved its adoption: "Whenever any member of the Acting Board of Managers may remove from the city of Cincinnati to any point within the limits of the states of Ohio, Indiana or Kentucky, the Acting Board may pay the traveling expenses of such member or members so as to enable them to attend the meetings of said Board, provided in the judgment of said Board it may be deemed wise to retain such member or members in office." Motion seconded and carried.

Moved and seconded that the Annual Reports be sent to every member of the Board at least one week prior to the Convention.

Moved as a substitute that the Board meet in the morning to hear the reports and in the afternoon for transaction of other business. Substitute seconded and carried.

A resolution was presented in reference to changing the date of the Convention and upon motion duly made and seconded it was referred to a committee, of which J. H. Garrison is chairman.

Moved that a committee be appointed to consider the revision of the Constitution.
Seconded and carried.

Committee,

CAREY E. MORGAN, Chairman, Paris, Ky.

W. R. WARREN, Pittsburg, Pa.

A. B. PHILLPUT, Indianapolis, Ind.

W. I. LAFFERTY, Cynthiana, Ky.

W. P. RODGERS, Cincinnati, O.

W. R. Warren, of Pennsylvania, moved that he be allowed to report to the Convention on Tuesday instead of Wednesday evening. Seconded and carried.

Moved and seconded that the Board approve the consolidation of the two Centennial Committees. Carried.

Moved and seconded to adjourn. Carried.

FRANCIS M. BIDDLE, Secretary.

FIFTY-SIXTH ANNUAL REPORT OF THE ACTING BOARD OF MANAGERS OF THE AMERICAN CHRISTIAN MISSIONARY SOCIETY.

Hereunto hath the Lord helped us! Not in our strength, but in His grace have we wrought during the year just closed. He has been merciful, has blessed us and caused His face to shine upon us. If men have been helped, blessed or saved through our joint efforts, to Him be all praise and glory, dominion and power through Jesus Christ our Lord.

The year has presented unusual difficulties. Early in the missionary year, Benjamin L. Smith, then Corresponding Secretary, in accordance with his determination expressed to the Chairman of the Acting Board during the convention in San Francisco, presented his resignation. The Acting Board, after due consideration, unanimously voted to accept it, and to have it take effect January 1, 1906.

The great disaster in California just before our offering, cost us a great sum of money. However, it gave us the opportunity of ministering to the necessity of the saints who were destitute and afflicted. This feature of our work is presented elsewhere in our report.

In view of these and other difficulties besetting us, we believe that we rightly view this as the greatest year in the history of this organization. Beyond doubt, every heart rejoices that we have raised more money this year than during any other in our history, our total receipts being $103,647.34, breaking last year's record by $3,324.31 and exceeding the best former year, 1903, by $1,201.24.

SUMMARY OF WORK.

Missionaries employed, 373, one hundred of whom were supported by direct appropriations from our treasury, and 273 by our appropriations to the various State Boards of Missions; 116 churches were organized and 15,013 persons brought into the church, of whom 8,273 were by baptism and 6,740 by commendation or statement.

CHILDREN'S DAY FOR HOME MISSIONS.

It is with keen gratification that we call attention to the increasing interest manifested in the Sunday-school Home Missionary Day. For the first time the gifts have exceeded $10,000 in a single year. Preachers and Sunday-school specialists, teachers and superintendents, and especially the Sunday-school superintendents, have helped us greatly in enlisting the school in the work of preaching the gospel in our own land.

It is the practice of your board to issue each year an appropriate exercise to be used by the schools in the observance of the Day and to request an offering upon the date most generally observed, which is the Lord's Day before Thanksgiving Day.

We are able to report that we succeeded in enlisting the largest number of schools last year that has ever helped in the cause of Home Missions in a single year; 908 having responded with offerings. We regard this as one of the most hopeful signs in the growth of Home Missionary sentiment, and would, with increased emphasis, insist that our preachers and state superintendents co-operate with us to make this day one of the most important and the most widely observed in the missionary calendar.

The observance of this day is a part of the general plan outlined several years ago for the closer co-operation of the state and national Boards in Home Missionary work. With the office facilities in Cincinnati, we are able to urge the appeal, handle the receipts, issue all literature pertaining to the subject and make a general division of the receipts with the least possible cost. Half the receipts are turned back to the state boards, the other half being devoted to national work, through the direction of the A. C. M. S. The receipts this year show a total of $10,331.76, received from 908 Sunday-schools. This is a gain of 158 schools over the number remitting last year, and a gain of $2,130.65 in the amount contributed.

In 1900 the gain in receipts was.....	$ 766.46
" 1901 " " "	1,120.87
" 1902 " " "	1,407.73
" 1903 " " "	2,249.41
" 1904 " " "	1,607.92
" 1905 " loss " "	303.94
" 1906 " gain " "	2,130.65

We confidently expect to enlist 2,500 schools during the coming year, and to report not less than $25,000 as the offerings from the Sunday-schools for Home Missions.

A SUPPLEMENTARY STATEMENT.

In addition to the money raised and disbursed by THE AMERICAN CHRISTIAN MISSIONARY SOCIETY for work in the home land, we are glad to be able to report the receipts of the two Boards which are departments of our work:

The Board of Ministerial Relief raised.....	$11,059.39
The Board of Church Extension raised.....	85,616.92

The various State Missionary Societies raised $186,129.64.

The Christian Woman's Board of Missions, out of their total receipts, expended in America $109,090.27 in its various Missionary, Educational and Philanthropic enterprises.

These sums, added to the $103,647.34 raised by THE AMERICAN CHRISTIAN MISSIONARY SOCIETY AND STATE BOARDS gives a grand total of $495,542.56.

LIST OF BEQUESTS RECEIVED DURING THE MISSIONARY YEAR.

Our Society has received by bequest during the year from the estates of the following persons. The amounts sent appear opposite their names:

Burgess, Nancy J., Indianapolis, Ind.....	$ 500.00
Campbell, Sarah H., Teegarden, Ohio.....	26.40
Deardorff, John M., Portland, Ore.....	969.05
Judd, Lucina, Ravenna, Ohio.....	2,133.79
Lawler, Mrs. Lillie B., Winsted, Conn.....	100.00
Phillips, J. T., New Castle, Pa.....	190.00
Smith, Mrs. R. E., Whitesboro, Texas.....	497.88
Taylor, T. E., Stockport, Iowa.....	100.00

The lists of bequests received by this Society should grow much longer annually. Thousands of persons who have not been over generous with their means during their life-time, should, as far as it is within their power, make good their failure in their last days by making eternal friends with the mammon of unrighteousness.

The reports of the missionary societies of the Methodist, Presbyterian, Baptist, Congregationalists and some other bodies show annually hundreds of thousands of dollars, and some years millions, bequeathed to these institutions. Indeed, bequests are among the greatest sources of their income. Of course, they can not be recognized as staple from year to year in amounts, but they do form one of the greatest sources of income of these organizations. We hope that our people will give from year to year as largely as any of these, and devise larger and larger things in their wills for the larger advancement of the Kingdom of God.

MISSIONS WHICH HAVE BECOME SELF-SUPPORTING CHURCHES.

We take special pride in presenting this list from year to year, since it is an excellent indication of the real progress of our work. This year the following have assumed self-support:

Halifax, Nova Scotia, R. E. Stevenson, minister in charge, writes us that the spirit of independence had so been cultivated within that congregation as to make the people look forward with eagerness to the day on which they could thank THE AMERICAN CHRISTIAN MISSIONARY SOCIETY for aid rendered, and say, "Henceforth we stand alone." The amount of our contribution had been gradually decreased, so that when the last contract expired, the people scarcely noticed the difference in the withdrawal of our appropriation. They are filled with joy to think that they can pay their own way and henceforth contribute to the spread of the gospel elsewhere.

The Second Church of Christ, Brooklyn, N. Y., Jos. Keevil, minister, has assumed self-support. In few places have our brethren shown such heroism as at this church. The little handful of people, in order that it might be self-supporting, heroically went to work to pay off an indebtedness of $2,000 in one year. It appeared an utter impossibility, but the devotion and sacrifice of the preacher proved contagious, and nearly all the members rallied splendidly. More than $600 of this money was raised by "A Penny a Day League." A large number of the membership of the church pledged themselves to give one cent each per day for the liquidation of the debt. They raised the necessary money, and once again proved the might of small and insignificant things. They have large plans for the future, and must be reckoned with as an aggressive religious force in America's greatest city.

The church at Davenport, Wash., after a long struggle and much sacrifice, rejoices in being able to pay its own way and to contribute to places more needy than itself. This is likewise true of the church at LaGrande, Ore., which has gladly released us from any further contributions.

Notwithstanding the disaster in San Francisco and vicinity, the church at Alameda, Cal., P. C. Macfarlane, minister, has become self-supporting, and is building a splendid, new house of worship. The money expended there will soon be repaid to the brotherhood in missionary contributions.

The church at Galveston, Texas, Geo. Munro, minister, has likewise gone upon the self-supporting list. We congratulate this congregation on the success attending its efforts to stand alone.

One of the most gratifying evidences of the determination of our missions not to remain a burden on the brotherhood any longer than is absolutely necessary, is seen in the action of the West End Church, Atlanta, Ga. Our Board voted them an appropriation for another year. Upon being notified to that effect, the minister, Bernard P. Smith, wrote back and said that, in view of the heavy burdens of this Society and the almost countless appeals which we were unable to answer, he and his people believed that while it meant additional sacrifice and hard work on their part, they ought not accept the appropriation, simply because other places needed it more. Here is an example worthy of imitation by a hundred missions. We trust that this case may be reckoned a classic, and our brotherhood be told of it for years to come.

The church at Berkeley, Cal., to which E. W. Darst ministered, has also gone upon the self-supporting list. Brother Darst has gone from this field and has been succeeded by Robert P. Shepherd, whose ability as a preacher and enthusiasm as a mission worker, will guarantee hundreds of dollars per year to our various missionary societies on the small investment which THE AMERICAN CHRISTIAN MISSIONARY SOCIETY has made in Berkeley.

REPORTS FROM THE FIELD.

We submit herewith a brief sketch of the work done in the various fields where appropriations from your Board sustain the work wholly or in part. In some cases the reports from the field have been so meager that it is possible scant justice has been done the workers. The blame for this lies either with the local missionary or the state secretary. It is not possible, within the limits of our annual report, to give a detailed report from every field. Tabulated reports are given elsewhere.

ALABAMA.—D. T. Stanley has labored a portion of the year at Woodlawn and North Birmingham. Claude E. Hill continues his labors with the Mobile church, and reports 51 baptisms during the year, 9 accessions by letter and 48 otherwise. Besides maintaining the work at the high standard in this important seaport city, Brother Hill has organized at Citronelle. Before another year we hope to have a flourishing church at this point. Perhaps at no point in the South has the work yielded larger returns than in Mobile. Certainly no more important work has been done than that done by Claude E. Hill. E. E. Linthicum reports 271 additions from the labor of nine missionaries in the general field during the year and 25 different points assisted. Alabama is an important field where a small band of determined disciples have planned wisely, and often at great sacrifice have kept the interests of the kingdom first in their hearts.

ARKANSAS.—H. S. Mobley has labored in the Northwest District during the past year. He has held meetings at ten different points, and reports 172 additions.

At Prairie Grove a parsonage was erected, at West Fork, a new church building. In the five counties comprising this Northwest District there are 100 congregations, 16 preachers, 18 Sunday-schools and 13 church houses. This shows a very large field in the most progressive part of the state virtually neglected, but for the little work the evangelist of the Home Board is capable of doing. E. C. Browning reports 740 additions by missionary labors last year; 12 missionaries employed for the whole or part time. An encouraging feature of the work for the past year has been the building of houses of worship. Buildings have been erected in at least three county seats, and at five other points lots have been obtained and arrangements made to build. At least ten good preachers are needed in important places, and larger appropriations are called for. Arkansas probably yields larger returns upon the investment than any other field in which we labor. Young men who can afford to labor for a few years for a small salary, can do marvellous things in this responsive territory.

CALIFORNIA, N.—D. A. Russell reports 590 added by missionary labor last year; 16 missionaries were employed at 16 different places; three churches were organized during the year through missionary assistance. The general work has been largely directed toward bringing the state wards well on toward self-support. The earthquake of April 18, affected the Bay District seriously and the assistance rendered the city of San Francisco by the churches of the state seriously affected the income of the State Board. The A. C. M. S. is holding up the hands of these brethren and helping them to bear the burdens thus thrust upon them.

CALIFORNIA, S.—Grant K. Lewis reports 590 additions added through the labors of thirty missionaries during the year. We regret that we can not give an extended report of the splendid work done in this district during the year. Not only has attention been bestowed upon the problem of city evangelization in Los Angeles, but the State Board has also devoted itself largely to the encouragement of weak churches in Arizona, and to the development of the work in that territory. Southern California has one of the best organizations in the country and is answering nobly the cries of the people within her own borders.

CITY EVANGELIZATION.

Fred A. Mayhall has been supported at Maplewood (St. Louis, Mo.).

Fred Kline has been supported at Grand Avenue, Minneapolis, Minn. This mission is now in the best condition and we hope and believe, well on its way to self-support.

Wm. Kraft is our missionary among the Germans in Cleveland, O. This mission expects to be out of debt by the end of October. The outlook is cheering, and this work, which has been maintained by THE AMERICAN CHRISTIAN MISSIONARY SOCIETY, and the Ohio State Board bids fair to become self-supporting at no distant day. Gilbert E. Ireland has been supported at Carondelet, St. Louis, Mo. He says, "After many years' experience in England and in the East and West of this country, I believe that Carondelet, the East part of St. Louis, is, all told, the most difficult field I have ever known. Yet, it is responsive to work done in faith and love. A fine advance has really been made in the few years of the church's existence. The prospects were never so inspiring as now. The securing of a splendid new lot under the auspices of the City Mission Board gives the church much encouragement within and much prestige without. Two or three good meetings in the near future will doubtless make this a strong congregation." Bro. Ireland has just been elected City Evangelist in St. Louis, and will be supported in part by the A. C. M. S.

Sumner T. Martin began services as City Evangelist of Chicago June 18th, under the employment and direction of THE AMERICAN CHRISTIAN MISSIONARY SOCIETY. We consider ourselves fortunate in being able to procure a man as able and as uniformly successful as Sumner T. Martin has been. The selection has met with very general approval, and the work already reported justifies our course in appointing him as city evangelist at this important point. Under the old plan of operation in Chicago, our appropriations were made direct to the Board of City Evangelization. Under the present plan, the city evangelist is in the immediate employ of THE AMERICAN CHRISTIAN MISSIONARY SOCIETY, and is directed from Cincinnati. Bro. Martin reports that they have purchased a church building from the Presbyterians in West Chicago, with carpets, stoves, chandeliers, furniture, etc., for $3,000. While developing the work at West Side, Bro. Martin has preached for the church at Maywood and is about to locate a pastor there. He also writes that H. E. Wilhite has located temporarily in South Chicago, and has agreed to stay with them until at least 100 are added to the congregation. West Pullman will soon be free from debt and able to undertake successful work. Brother Martin's three months' work in Chicago has already demonstrated the wisdom of the selection. We feel that the outlook for Chicago is brighter than it has ever been.

J. E. Stuart continues as pastor of the Fifteenth Street Church, Washington, D. C. He reports 51 additions during the year, and a growing interest in every department of work.

H. J. Kirschstein continues as minister at North Side, Omaha. He reports 36 accessions during the year; a mission organized at Florence, a suburb, where a lot has been obtained, and a building erected and paid for. The North Side church building has been removed recently to a better location, the old lot sold and the debt paid off to the Church Extension Board. The new work begins with great encouragement and with new hope. After the struggles of years we believe that this mission is in a fair way to become a strong and influential self-supporting church.

FLORIDA.—T. A. Cox reports 63 additions as a result of the labors of two missionaries at fifteen points in the state during the year. Two churches were organized during the year in the state. The state of Florida is growing in population and improvements more rapidly than ever in its history. Towns with stable fortunes are building up in large numbers in every part of the state. We have members in almost all of them. The greater part of the state of Florida has been wholly neglected by our people. The clerk of the church at Pensacola, J. A. Wilson, writes that they do not know a single one of our preachers in the state. The State Board feels that it ought to have more support from THE AMERICAN CHRISTIAN MISSIONARY SOCIETY. At Tampa, Wm. J. Clark has succeeded J. P. Rowlinson, and in the three and a half months of his ministry eight have been added and a new church organized at Gary, near by. The cause in Florida has received help and counsel within the past few years from which we have good reason to hope the development of a more aggressive spirit and the more thorough cultivation of the spiritual soil than in years past. At Pensacola, our General Southern Evangelist, O. P. Spiegel, has built up a splendid church, which within a few years, we hope, by careful nurturing, to make the base of supplies for a large territory. Pensacola is one of the most important ports on the seaboard, and we should have a large church here.

GEORGIA.—Bernard P. Smith, Secretary of the Georgia State Board, reports 243 additions as the result of the labors of eleven missionaries. Thirteen points were assisted during the year, the work being directed mainly toward the development of work already inaugurated.

INDIAN TERRITORY.—S. R. Hawkins reports 588 additions as the result of the labor of 36 missionaries in 32 points. Ten new churches were organized in the Territory. C. F. Trimble reports 278 baptisms, 162 added otherwise; a total of 440, three new churches organized, houses built at Texola, Sumner and Piedmont. Wonderful success attends all our labors in this great territory, and to tabulate the reports of the men in the field would require more time and space than is allotted to this report. At the recent conventions of Oklahoma and Indian Territory steps were taken toward the consolidation of the work in the two territories, and by the time of the next annual report, we hope to have one report for the new state.

IDAHO, N.—During the year, on account of natural geographical lines, the work in this state has been divided. E. F. Beaudreau is Corresponding Secretary for the Northern District, and Wm. M. Semones, of the Southern. L. F. Stephens and wife have been the special missionaries in this field during the year past. During the year, three churches were organized, three built and four dedicated; 246 additions were reported. E. F. Beaudreau reports 95 additions as a result of the year's work in Northern Idaho. It has taken most of the year to spy out the land, organize forces, and interest the churches. Next year we confidently expect to report a great ingathering in this state of enormous possibilities. The Christian Endeavorers are supporting Idaho, and whatever they do is well done.

IDAHO, S.—George C. Ritchey has been State Evangelist during the past year in South Idaho. He reports 22 baptisms, three churches organized with 126 members, lots purchased at Meridian, Rupert and Emmett. A building is now being dedicated at Rupert and a minister in charge. G. M. Read, missionary at Weiser, reports 22 additions for the year. B. F. Clay dedicated a church at Twin Falls. B. F. Clay and B. W. Rice, members of the State Board, organized a church at Nampa. Preachers are needed in Idaho. Men of ability and experience, young men of zeal and vision and consecration. Salaries may not be large now, but in a few years Idaho churches will be able to do as well as the best. The men who will help the churches now in their need, will be the men of the hour in a year or two hence.

INDIANA.—R. C. Snodgrass has been our missionary at Indiana Harbor since November 1st, 1905. Until the close of the year, he reports eleven accessions, and all branches of the work in prosperous condition. This is a very difficult field, and Brother Snodgrass has done an unusual work in the time he has been there.

LOUISIANA.—John A. Stevens reports five churches organized during the year under missionary labor; 243 persons added to the churches. During the year, Marcellus Ely resigned as missionary at Soniat avenue, New Orleans, and W. M. Taylor is his successor. Bro. Taylor reports the church in good condition, and 30 additions up to August 31. Among the churches organized was that at Ruston, a splendid and rapidly growing city in the heart of the agricultural section of the state. The state meeting was held here while yet the congregation was meeting in a tent. The people of the state are enthusiastic and there is no body of people who sacrifice more for the cause of Christ. There is a great future before Louisiana.

MARYLAND—C. M. Kreidler, missionary in the 25th Street Church, Baltimore, reports the enlargement and remodeling of the church building, which is soon to be dedicated by George W. Muckley. The church is located in a hopeful and growing community. Sixty additions are reported as a result of the year's work. W. S. Hoye, Corresponding Secretary, reports more than 300 additions, and three churches organized.

MINNESOTA.—J. H. Bicknell, Corresponding Secretary of Minnesota, reports 252 additions under missionary labor last year. Four churches were organized by missionary aid. Conditions are such in this state as to make work in the rural districts and small towns most discouraging. Scandinavians, Germans, Swedes, and other foreigners are constantly moving in and purchasing property from the Americans, who move farther west or south. Often the little congregations are decimated in a single year. If our Board were able to make liberal appropriations for the support of workers among these foreign elements, we could win Minnesota.

MISSISSIPPI.—This state, through its State Secretary, W. W. Phares, reports 88 additions, number of missionaries employed, four; number of places assisted, 39; number of churches organized, one.

NEBRASKA.—W. A. Baldwin, Corresponding Secretary of Nebraska, reports 709 additions through missionary labor last year, 20 missionaries employed, 25 places assisted, five churches organized by missionary effort. Brother Baldwin adds, "It may be interesting to say that the Nebraska work has shown the greatest advance this year that it has known for many years at least. More money raised and easier; no debts. One church supported its own evangelist; three others planning to take two more. One individual will support his own special evangelist. Churches are growing in strength. We are unable to accurately report on our growth since so many churches are not making annual reports. Some of the figures are two years old, and a few even older. Doubtless we have had between 2,000 and 3,000 additions, with a net gain of over 1,000, but we want to be conservative. Our state convention enrolled 2,236. Doubtless 1,000 were present from outside Lincoln and Bethany." Edward Clutter, a student in Cotner University, while carrying his full work in college, has preached on Sunday afternoons at Irvington, and in the evenings at Florence. He recently held a meeting at Plainview with substantial results (not yet reported). At Florence a church was organized with 63 members. All the problems of the Home Mission field confront the brethren in Nebraska. But no portion of our brotherhood is doing better work than are our people here. They bravely and patiently apply themselves to every task. They recognize no obstacle as insurmountable, no problem of too deep perplexity. Cities and rural communities, foreigners and native-born, pastoral ministry and the work of the evangelist, all are given their due proportion of care and prayerful help.

NEW YORK.—Through the labors of eleven missionaries, 250 additions are reported by D. C. Tremaine, Corresponding Secretary for the state of New York. In Upper Troy, C. C. Waite has been the faithful minister in a most difficult field. He reports an increase of 21 during the year. H. H. Cushing has organized a new congregation at South Framingham, Mass., with sixteen members reported; eight additions to date. In January a church building was dedicated; the church has been finished, a heating plant put in and $500 paid on the debt. W. G. Oram, of the Third Church, Brooklyn, reports that the church has just closed the greatest year in its history. In the last year the membership has been doubled. The financial condition of the church was never better, and the outlook for future work never more encouraging. New York is, without doubt, the greatest single missionary district in the world and if our people rightly viewed this great territory, tens of thousands of dollars would be forthcoming for this single field alone.

OKLAHOMA.—J. M. Monroe, Corresponding Secretary, reports 1,356 additions through missionary labor last year. Eleven missionaries were employed whole or part time, assisting 97 different places. Forty-four church buildings were dedicated, 56 meetings held, 48 preachers located, 67 places supplied and 29 churches organized by missionary help. The brethren of Oklahoma believe in doing things. They spend little time on reports. They are too much occupied in preaching the gospel and baptizing believers and organizing congregations and building church homes. The wondrous fertility of this region justifies all past investments of missionary funds and argues liberal appropriations for years to come. We are the dominating spiritual force in Oklahoma. Our missionary heroes have made us so.

OREGON.—T. S. Handsaker, until recently general missionary in Oregon, held meetings at Hood River, Odell, Lostine, Enterprise and LaGrande. He reports 198 additions at these points from the period from October 1, 1905, to March 15, 1906. O. H. King has done an important work in LaGrande, bringing that work to self-support within the year. F. E. Billington, State Secretary, reports 302 additions under the labors of nine missionaries, with eleven places assisted.

NORTH CAROLINA.—J. Boyd Jones reports 167 additions through the labors of eleven missionaries, seven places assisted by missionary labor and three churches organized by missionary help. Brother Jones says that they ought to have at least $1,000 next year to support the missions established this year, and that they need the help and sympathy of the great brotherhood of Disciples. North Carolina is blessed with leaders of vision and faith. Their record for the past few years has been inspiring. The odds against us are heavy in the Old North State, but with men like those who lead here and with larger gifts more telling advance may be looked for in the near future.

PENNSYLVANIA, E.—C. A. Brady, Corresponding Secretary for East Pennsylvania, reports 204 added through the labors of five missionaries; six places assisted during the year.

PENNSYLVANIA, W.—J. A. Joyce reports 532 persons added through the labors of sixteen missionaries; twenty points assisted; one new church organized.

SOUTH CAROLINA.—C. W. Erwin reports 79 added through missionary labor; one missionary employed during the year; fifteen places assisted. The need of men of exceptional ability and devotion is here very great. We wish we could put more money into this state. We are little known. Our churches are mostly weak.

TEXAS.—J. C. Mason reports 1,902 additions through the labors of 34 evangelists. This state is splendidly organized and, in the person of J. C. Mason, is fortunate in having one of the most thorough, systematic and successful corresponding secretaries in the brotherhood.

VIRGINIA.—H. C. Combs, Corresponding Secretary, reports 800 additions through the labors of 24 missionaries; 83 places assisted; seven churches organized by missionary help.

WASHINGTON, E.—J. A. Pine reports 243 additions; one missionary employed during the year; four places assisted; two new churches organized. During the past year the brethren of East Washington have created a separate organization for state work. The Western half of the state is separated from the Eastern half by a vast territory almost wholly unoccupied by our people. From Seattle to Spokane is 400 miles. The territory being occupied only in the extreme east and the extreme west, it was found almost impossible to plan work in either district which would meet the hearty indorsement of the other. The Western District is just now organizing and will soon have a good man in the field as evangelist.

WASHINGTON, W.—R. E. Dunlap, Corresponding Secretary, reports 124 added; two missionaries employed; nine places assisted; two new churches organized. Seattle is planning a city campaign on a large scale. A city evangelist is to be secured and the rapidly multiplying suburbs of this great city are to be evangelized as speedily as possible. Our Board is asked for $2,000 for this plan. Seattle is already a wonderful city. Its commercial life reaches from the Atlantic seaboard to the Orient. Thirty-five thousand residents of San Francisco have taken up their abode in this city. Foreigners of every tongue are here. Great commercial houses and manufacturing establishments are locating here. The city is growing by leaps and bounds. Now is the time for us to do large things. The name of B. H. Lingenfelter is indissolubly linked with the life of our movement in Seattle. His work has been heroic. He has, at great sacrifice, stood by the cause, planted missions and placed the work on a substantial footing.

WISCONSIN.—H. F. Barstow reports 63 added by the labors of five missionaries; twenty places helped.

ONTARIO.—Amos Tovell reports the total number added 100; number of churches organized, one; missionaries employed, twelve; places assisted, twelve.

BRITISH NORTHWEST.—J. A. L. Romig reports 50 additions; one new church organized; four places assisted. This includes the Provinces of New Ontario, Manitoba, Saskatchewan, Alberta, British Columbia, Mackenzie and Yukon; embracing a population of 13,000,000. We have about six hundred members known to be in this district; one member to every 6,500 of the population; seven congregations in the district; five preachers living in the district. Here is another great frontier where cities are springing up in a day, and where men are swarming in the search for fortunes. We have disciples scattered everywhere as but few men are ministering to their needs. With five thousand dollars we could lay the foundation here for a work which would parallel that of Oklahoma or Indian Territory or Louisiana.

EVANGELISTIC WORK IN PORTO RICO.

This work was actually done by the national C. W. B. M. We helped to the amount of one thousand dollars. For a part of the year services were held in San Juan, Bayamon, Polo Seco, Gutierre, Toa Baja, Dorado, Candilaria, Comorio, and Mayaguez. At this time there were five native helpers. Of this force two were compelled to suspend work on account of sickness. These were the most efficient, Ramon Sosa and Damasa Cintron. One other was requested to cease from preaching as his life seemed not to have a good influence. Another so injured his work by his personal habits that he also could not be of use in the ministry. The work in Porto Rico proves the need for thoroughly well trained native ministers if we are to wisely develop the native church. Gabriel Medino seems an earnest young man and is at work. Ramon Sosa's health is improving, and it is expected that Damasa Cintron will soon return to the Island in better health. A Sunday-school of about sixty in attendance regularly has been maintained at Bayamon, part of the classes in English and part in Spanish.

Dr. Alton preached in English on Sunday mornings in Bayamon for nearly four months, beginning in March, during which time he baptized eight of the girls at the Girls' Christian Orphanage. When work on the Boys' Orphanage building was begun, Dr. Alton felt that he could not continue preaching.

The first of January you asked me to take charge of the evangelistic work. I first visited all the stations to find out what was possible about them. My first sermon was preached January 31. Soon I was preaching on an average of four times a week. The work in San Juan was closed in December. The work in Palo Seco was suspended in June to lighten my labors. The interest there was not good, and I was not well. In July, my health compelled our return to the home land. In my absence Dr. Alton has superintended the work.

Early in September V. C. Carpenter and his wife reached Porto Rico. They will have charge of the evangelistic work in the Bayamon District, which will leave us free for church and educational work in Mayaguez.

ELMER IRELAND.

SAN FRANCISCO.

The earthquake and fire which laid waste the city of San Francisco in the month of April seriously affected the work of our brotherhood in the cities and towns around the Bay of San Francisco. The First Church, to which Brother Frank S. Ford ministers, was totally destroyed, as was also Brother Ford's home with all its contents. Other church buildings in the city were not seriously injured. A few hundred dollars in each case being the measure of the damage. The old brick house occupied by the brethren of the First Church, San Jose, was irreparably injured, while the building of the Second Church was comparatively uninjured. These two congregations have united and will temporarily use the frame building of the Second Church. They have been offered a good sum for their First Church property and are in a fair way to erect a new home at but little cost to themselves. The building at Palo Alto was seriously damaged, but a gift of several hundred dollars through the C. W. B. M. enabled them to make immediate repairs. The church at Santa Rosa suffered damage to the extent of several hundred dollars. Every congregation in and around the city suffered severely through loss of membership, salary and property losses to the membership; and in scores of ways that can not be enumerated. The repair work that was practicable has gone forward with reasonable promptness.

At the first news of the disaster your corresponding secretary telegraphed an offer of assistance to the brethren of the stricken city, and an appeal to the brotherhood was made at once. Upon solicitation of the California brethren, the Field Secretary was directed to make a thorough investigation of the needs in the Bay District and to formulate a plan of reconstruction, in consultation with the State Board, the City Board of San Francisco and the Reconstruction Commission.

The plan adopted provides for the issuance of an appeal, through the American Christian Missionary Society, for $100,000 for the general work of rehabilitation in the cities affected by the earthquake and fire of April 18th. Funds contributed in response to this appeal are to be used under the direction of the Acting Board of the American Christian Missionary Society, working through the Reconstruction Commission, consisting of Dr. R. L. Rigdon, of San Francisco, Prof. H. C. Ingram, of Oakland, Dean Hiram Van Kirk of Berkley Bible Seminary, W. H. Martin of Santa Barbara, A. C. McKeever of Fresno, C. C. Chapman of Los Angeles, President of the South California State Board, and A. C. Smithers, for seventeen years minister at Los Angeles.

The work to be done contemplates not only the rebuilding of the First Church and such repairs as are needed upon buildings, but also the maintenance of the general work of each congregation at such a standard of efficiency as shall prevent loss of prestige or the impairment of the general equipment, the completion of projects already under way, by the various congregations, the purchase of lots and such temporary equipment as may be found necessary, and the supplementing of the salaries of preachers as may be needed.

This amount of money will barely enable us to hold our prestige in San Francisco. It is altogether probable that as the city grows, your board will be required to grant still further assistance to the brethren of San Francisco and the entire Bay District, in order to enable them to adequately grasp the unusual opportunities that will, in a little while, confront us upon the coast. For the present we must content ourselves with this appeal for $100,000, which will serve to relieve the pressure of the burdens entailed upon the brotherhood of San Francisco and your Acting Board.

FOREIGN POPULATION.

The report of Julius Stone, our Scandinavian Missionary in Wisconsin, is a cheering one. During the year there have been 31 additions to the faithful little band at Chippewa Falls, coming within one of doubling the membership. All the missionary offerings have been regularly taken. Besides ministering to this little congregation, Brother Stone has an itinerary which includes 206 scattered disciples, most of whom have come from other religious bodies, principally the Lutheran Church. Brother Stone has attended the Scandinavian mission meetings at Alta, Ia., during the year and visited six cities in Wisconsin in evangelistic work. The Chippewa Falls congregation entertained the Fourth Christian Unity Conference from May 30th to June 3d. These conferences are held semi-annually and look toward the unification of Lutheran Scandinavians upon a New Testament basis. Our people play an important part in these convocations.

REPORT OF THE STANDING COMMITTEE ON EVANGELISM.

It is with no small amount of pride that we submit an epitome of the work done through or inspired by this committee. We are less than two years old as an active organization and component part of the American Christian Missionary Society, but we believe that no other organization in the history of co-operative work among us has so speedily justified its existence.

It has not been our particular aim to raise a great fund for the prosecution of this work. We ought to raise and expend much more than we have, and we hope to do it from year to year. We have thus far aimed at creating, fostering and directing a certain spirit and kind of work rather than raising and wisely disbursing a great fund. The total cost of this department this year is but $2,462.06, a large portion of which was received directly for this work. Last year our total expenditure was only $1,601.99, and as we raised nearly that amount in various ways for our special work, our department was practically conducted without cost to the American Christian Missionary Society. This statement is made because many persons have written asking for the figures, and stating that they were informed a year ago that the deficit of several thousand dollars in the accounts of the Home Society was caused by the added cost of carrying the Board of Evangelism.

Our aim has been to make the whole church evangelistic. We believe that the spirit of evangelism is the spirit of Christ, and that he presents but a half gospel who is satisfied to edify saints and raise money for the advance of the Kingdom. It is but a poor, weak substitute for the gospel of Christ, which does not continually aim at increasing the number of those who own His name and reveal the power of an endless life. We believe in a wooing gospel—a gospel of hope for the bruised and lost—a gospel which can not be preached with power unless it includes the message, "Come unto me and I will give you rest."

This we view as the chief characteristic of the message of the apostles, it ever being so vital and pronounced as to astonish the hearers with the good news about the grace of God revealed in Jesus Christ. And those who were reconciled to God through Him, at once took up the glad strain and went hither and thither, telling of God's love for the whole race of man. The whole church was evangelistic.

Nothing is more needed in the church than an all-pervading sense of duty and privilege of the priesthood of all Christians—the obligation and joy of pointing men to the Lamb of God who beareth away the sins of the world.

This characteristic of the apostolic church we are all earnestly seeking to restore.

Our method is to make the ministry evangelistic first of all, for many preachers have not cultivated their evangelistic gifts. In conventions, rallies, and evangelistic institutes we are taking every possible opportunity of speaking on evangelism. From time to time we write on this theme for our papers and encourage others to do the same. We assist our editors in bringing out special issues on evangelism. We conduct a Department of Evangelism in our magazine, The American Home Missionary. In this are found notes, news and articles on the church militant. The newest and best books on evangelism, after painstaking reading, are reviewed in this department. Many preachers have learned to look upon our reviews as a guide in buying evangelistic literature. Our brethren are buying and reading more books on evangelism than ever before.

We have conducted Schools of Evangelism in various parts of our country and Evangelistic Institutes at various schools and colleges. The first aim is to make the preacher's methods and sermons evangelistic. The next is to show him how to make the Sunday-school, Christian Endeavor Society and other organizations evangelistic, so that—

"To rescue souls forlorn and lost,
The tempted, troubled, tempest-tossed," shall be held by the members to be the chief work of the church.

We have encouraged our brethren in many places to conduct simultaneous evangelistic campaigns. Among these we mention that in Cincinnati, twenty-two congregations joined in this spiritual warfare. It was the first concerted movement of our forces in that city and was fruitful in many ways. A greater campaign in Western Pennsylvania followed hard upon this. Forty congregations began meetings on the same day. Not to mention many other and lasting results, about 2,200 souls were added to the church of God during this meeting, making a net gain to our forces of about 15 per cent. in a few weeks. That is, our campaign in evangelism gave as great results in six weeks as our first fifty years' work in the same region!

Chattanooga was the scene of another campaign. Our congregations worked together as never before. Great good was done, and many turned from dumb idols to serve the living God. At this writing our congregations in Bloomington, Ill., are in a simultaneous revival, with the Brooks brothers in charge. The brotherhood may expect great results from this campaign.

All Southern California is going into a campaign in the early spring. In January will be held a state-wide simultaneous evangelistic campaign in the state of Iowa. On the last Lord's Day in October our brethren in West Virginia and Indiana will begin state-wide campaigns. Bro. T. J. Legg reports for the latter state that 200 congregations have signified their intention of co-operating, and that others are daily joining the movement. This promises to be the greatest evangelistic movement thus far in our history. Ohio is planning for a similar movement one year hence.

The Standing Committee has likewise induced a number of worthy men to enter the field as evangelists. Some of these are doing very acceptable and successful work. More evangelists are needed. Some of our men receive from ten to fifty times the number of calls which they can answer.

Hundreds of congregations which desire evangelistic meetings are unable to find men to assist them. We are encouraging them to write to us. This they are doing in increasing numbers. Preachers who can get away from their congregations for one or more meetings are writing us for work. In nearly 800 cases during the past year, we have made meetings possible by bringing together the congregations and the evangelist. If we had done nothing else, this important work would surely have justified our existence as a standing committee on evangelism.

In a number of cities we have supplied the workers and the money for the meetings. This has been a minor portion of our work but it succeeded in adding about 1,103 to the host of the saved.

Our Master remarked "That the Kingdom of God cometh not with observation." All things in the advance of the church can not be seen, counted and tabulated. This is true with our department of evangelism. It has done much which is potent and tangible and which will refresh and renew waste places in human hearts like a stream of water in a thirsty land. Much that we have set in motion can not be reported. The spirit of evangelism, like the leaven hidden in the meal, is at work, and in time will transform the ministry of many preachers and the labor of other hosts of Christian workers which no man can number.

For while the tired waves, vainly breaking,
Seem here no painful inch to gain,
Far back, through creeks and inlets making,
Comes, silent, flooding in, the main.
And not by eastern windows only
Comes daylight in, when comes the light;
In front the sun mounts slow, how slowly!
But westward, look, the land is bright!

NEW FIELDS THAT OUGHT TO BE ENTERED.

So long and so vainly has the Home Board appealed for funds adequate to the actual demands annually made upon the general treasury that we have well nigh despaired of entering, upon any worthy scale of magnitude, many most important fields where an early entrance would mean speedy victory.

Your Board has hoped for years that a group of men possessing means might become interested in the evangelization of our Foreign Populations. Year after year addresses have been made by men of first ability, in which the importance of this work has been set forth in attractive form and with great detail of fact. And yet the gifts received by the Society have not been liberal enough to allow the Acting Board to inaugurate a single new mission in this most appealing and most neglected department of Home Missionary work.

Last year attention was directed to the work being done among the Scandinavians, through the labors of Julius Stone and his helpers. The religious unrest among this people, to which reference was then made, becomes more and more intensified year by year. Wisconsin, North and South Dakota, Iowa and Minnesota present a score or more of open doors among these people; other religious bodies having less in common with these people than have we, are beginning aggressive campaigns among them. During the past year, Wm. J. Osterhus, a scholarly advocate of Christian Union, and a stern defender of the Apostolic faith, came to our ranks from the Lutheran body. Tho' a man of recognized power among his own people, noted for his zeal for God and his passion for truth we have not been able to call to the support of this splendid leader sufficient financial backing to enable him to do the work of which he is capable.

A fund of five thousand dollars, devoted to work among the Scandinavians to-day, would result in winning one thousand in a year, and the establishment of an effective propaganda among the majority population of a half dozen states, which would lift in prestige and preeminence the plea for a united church upon the New Testament basis. We will not speak of the Jews, the Italians, the French, the Russians and the scores of foreign tongues among whom we have no missionaries. The people are here—here from every quarter of the globe, and are hastening hither upon every trans-Atlantic ship. We can not plead ignorance. The facts have been before us year by year and day by day. The daily press, the monthly magazines, the pulpits, the messages of the chief magistrate of the nation, the debates in Congress, and the publication societies of various religious bodies have published the news and directed the trend of public thinking upon the subject. That they must be Christianized no one doubts for a moment. That we have been glaringly negligent, and to all appearances purposely derelict in our duty seems beyond a peradventure. If we do nothing else during the coming year we should enter upon the work of evangelizing the stranger within our gates.

With the work upon the Panama Canal going forward with vigor, it would seem to us that now is the time to enter the canal zone with the gospel and religious privileges. Men and boys from our home states are risking their lives in this great enterprise, and it is not asking too much to seek to surround them with Christian influences in the midst of their temptations.

In the past few years a new world has opened to us. Alaska, heretofore connected in men's thought with mountains of ice and barren stretches of frozen fields, has come to be known as El Dorado, rich in untold deposits of gold and other ores, fertile in field and forest, and wonderful in commercial and industrial possibilities beyond the dreams of men.

Fishermen's villages with their primitive habitations and rude and simple life have given way to the modern city with all the luxuries and conveniences of modern municipal life. Factories, mills, fisheries, mines, railroads and every accessory of business activity have continued to transform the erstwhile cheerless waste into a land of homes, of industry, of thrift, and of wealth untold. Thousands of our own people have entered here and mingled with the throngs that make up the population of a new empire. But we have not a single congregation or a single active preacher in the entire Alaskan peninsula of 590,884 square miles, an area greater than the combined areas of Kentucky, Tennessee, Texas, Mississippi, Georgia, Alabama, Florida and South Carolina. We ought to put an evangelist in Alaska within six months.

Beyond that fertile and rapidly growing region which we were wont to term The Great Northwest of our own great country, there has developed within the past decade another Northwest Empire. The great Canadian Northwest comprising an area of over 500,000 square miles is peopling with the best citizens of every nation.

CALLS FOR AID.

The usefulness of a missionary organization is to be determined, not by the appeals made to it for assistance, but by the number and importance of the appeals which it is able to answer favorably. The demands being made upon us, of course, are to be judged by the number and persistency of the appeals. It is startling, therefore, to note that our Home Missionary Society in four months is called upon to give to deserving and needy places as much money as she ever has collected in a whole year. All we can do is to determine as far as possible the relative importance of the appeals, and answer those which are apparently most pressing. This, necessarily, leaves thousands of our brethren believing that we do not care for them. The truth is, we care for them as much as for any other, but find it impossible to take money from an empty treasury. What you place in our hands we can disburse, but not a dollar more. I present a few of the loudest and most pressing calls for aid.

There are in our country, chiefly in Wisconsin, Iowa, Minnesota, the Dakotas, and the city of Chicago, hundreds of thousands of Dano-Norwegian people. Great numbers of these people are dissatisfied with the religion of their fatherland and their childhood. They deny the binding authority of the historic creeds, and turning to the Bible, are earnestly seeking to discover and practice the things which constitute essential Christianity. Many thousands of them believe factions and divisions within the church to be sinful. These people are earnestly seeking the ground of the unity of the Apostolic Church. They meet in great annual or semi-annual conferences in many different places to study the problem of unity. Thousands of them have studied themselves into practically the position occupied by the Disciples of Christ. It would not be a difficult matter to bring them into our fellowship. They have appointed traveling delegates to go to their various conferences and to meet with their little bands in the various states. One was selected as the "Unity Correspondent."

This man, Brother C. S. Osterhus, is one of our own brethren. He is a man of education and consecration. He has been thoroughly tested. He is in every regard trustworthy. With but a trifling amount of help, this man, under the hand of God, could probably identify thousands of his people annually with the Disciples of Christ. He needs a living salary and expense of travel. He ought to be given the means with which to publish a paper in the language of his own people, for this is absolutely essential to reach them.

The last message from Brother C. S. Osterhus concerning this great work is as follows:

"Oh! do make a strong plea for us for our sacred and blessed mission at the Buffalo convention. I feel that if we are disappointed in the matter of receiving assistance for the Scandinavian Mission at this time the request will not be repeated, and our people will have lost faith and confidence in their American brethren's love and real interest in this work. In other words, I believe that the field will be lost for our own beloved American brethren and the Board, perhaps forever."

This work calls for $5,000 per year. Last year we could not contribute to it one dollar, because our money was already pledged to other works. Is there not one man or woman, blessed and prospered of God in material things, who will give us the $5,000 necessary to support this good man for a year? In the name of Jesus Christ, our Lord, we call upon you to do this.

* * * * *

In Texas, chiefly along the border, there are not less than 150,000 Mexicans, and, whether or not we want these people, they are coming to us at the rate of 50,000 per year. Large numbers of them are also found in New Mexico, Arizona, Southern California, and some other places in the Southwest. This race, which is alien in language, habits, traditions, and religion, is in the main, tired of Romanism, and approachable by all Protestant people who come, presenting a simpler and more satisfying gospel than they have ever heard at home. Our brother, J. C. Mason, State Secretary of Texas, who perhaps is in the best position of any one in our ranks to judge the case, thinks that we have simply trifled with the evangelization of the Mexicans. He thinks that we should immediately do less than we are doing or twenty fold more. It is his belief that, with the right kind of aid extended them, thrifty congregations could speedily be built up in dozens of places in Texas and the Southwest. Instead of trifling with this work at an expenditure of $500 a year, we ought to do something worthy of ourselves and of this alien people by expending on them not less than $5,000 this year. We appeal to some man of God for the money with which to do it.

* * * * *

Appeals come to us from various cities to carry on a work among the German speaking populations. This is another department in which, what we have done, has been wholly unworthy of us. At the present time, our total missionary force to German speaking Americans, is one man, Brother William Kraft, in Cleveland, Ohio.

My attention has recently been called to a man who is a profound scholar, having spent many years in universities in Europe, and having taught in one of them. He was a Roman Catholic priest, whose own study of the religious problems in the New Testament drove him out of Romanism. He understands and is in full sympathy with the plea made by the Disciples of Christ. He is anxious to preach it, especially to the Germans in great American cities. It is his belief, and that of others, that he could do a great work among the Catholic Germans. Unless some one comes forward with a liberal gift, we have not a dollar with which to guarantee the support of this man. Will not some one contribute the necessary $1,200 to support him in effort for one year among the German Catholics of an American city?

We have direct appeals to begin work among the Italians, Spaniards, Hollanders, Hungarians, French and Poles. Our religious neighbors are taking up this work in the great cities and are succeeding in it. It is high time that we, likewise, were undertaking it.

Little groups of brethren on the edge of the great Appalachian mountain system are appealing to us continually to enter that great region and undertake the evangelization of the poor mountain whites. Possibly there is not another race in our midst which promises so much for a small expenditure of money. Some of the noblest brethren in our ranks have come from this mountain stock. The successful ministry of any one of a half dozen of these would amply repay us for years of effort among the mountain whites. We can do practically nothing for these 2,000,000 persons unless our income is greatly increased. The appeal to aid them falls upon burning hearts, but is confronted by an empty treasury. Is it your will that others should win all the victories among these people?

* * * * *

We are simply overwhelmed by appeals from our cities. Because of the disaster which befell San Francisco, we leave her in a class by herself, and mention her elsewhere. Practically every one of the great cities in our land calls loudly to the Home Society and says, "Come over and help us." Every dollar of our income could be wisely spent in the cities of New England. It would be but a tithe of what might be economically expended in New York City. We could spend it all without the waste of a dollar, in the cities of New Jersey, or of Pennsylvania, East of the Susquehanna river. Chicago could swallow it all and need much more. St. Louis, New Orleans, Portland Ore., Tacoma, Seattle, Spokane, are among the great cities appealing to us and asking for greatly increased contributions. We are not certain that one such appeal can be answered unless our brethren rally to our support and give us money as they never have before.

* * * * *

The need of money is so great, that even in states where we are strongest, and in which our brethren are supposed to be able to solve their own missionary problems, there are important towns and cities appealing directly to us for aid. In the light of this, consider the great need in states that are rapidly settling up.

In Florida, a dozen important places are calling at once for aid,—Jacksonville Pensacola, Tallahassee, Tampa, Key West, Cedar Keys, Daytona, etc. In Mississippi and Louisiana there are scores of thriving and important towns in which we are being asked to assist in the organization of churches. Our brethren have made magnificent progress in Oklahoma and the Indian Territory, but the material development of that region is so great as to call for increased rather than decreased offerings for the work.

Now is the formative period. We win quickly and easily at present. Twenty years hence it is too late and we are compelled to win after a century of toil.

New Mexico and Arizona are rapidly filling up with settlers. Towns are springing up and reaching a population of thousands in a few months. We ought to start a church in every one of them, but are unable to assist one in twenty. The same may be said of Nevada, in which we have but a single organization, and of Wyoming, Montana and Idaho. The Dakotas present an inviting field and appeal to us more loudly than ever. In North Dakota there is but a single congregation of our people meeting regularly and owning a house of worship.

* * * * *

The Congregationalists have expended, in a single year, in the states of Washington and Oregon, as much as we have raised for Home Missions. The needs in these states are simply appalling.

Then there is the vast, new British Northwest, which offers an almost unrivalled field for Home Missionary enterprise. Are we to be too late in entering it? The brethren in Vancouver, Winnipeg, Port Arthur, and many other places are clamoring for assistance. How long shall we deny it?

The development of the vast mining resources in West Virginia is rapidly increasing the population of that state and making it one of the richest commonwealths in the Union. There are little groups of our brethren in almost every town and village. We ought to have at least $10,000 to do the work that is before us in that state this year. Our present conditions will not permit us to give even $1,000. We appeal to a brotherhood whom the Lord has greatly blessed in all material things and ask them for an adequate fund with which to prosecute this mighty work.

CONCERNING MISSIONARY OFFERINGS.

Though it was long after the beginning of the Restoration Movement before the organization of our first co-operative institution, or missionary society, we have from time to time founded new organizations until the field for co-operative work in missions, education, benevolence and ministerial relief is fairly well covered.

To assist each of the worthy societies which appeal to the church for aid, requires that a special offering be taken about ten times in a year. This appears to be a great drain on the churches, but various denominations which far exceed us in missionary offerings, take four or five more offerings annually than our churches are asked to make.

Their scheme of offerings, however, is regular and orderly. Unlike us, they have an authoritative central body, which meets and fully considers the whole field of organized activities, and which studies the needs and interests of the various organizations. It arranges the offerings so that each, as far as possible, may have the right of way and a full and fair chance. One interest is not allowed to overshadow others, as it is apt to do when its secretaries and advocates alone set its limits.

With us all is different. As each new organization came into existence it selected for its offering the best time which was not already appropriated. It did this without reference to any interests but its own. It proceeded to push its claims right in the face of other interests and offerings, much to their jeopardy and hurt.

Our whole scheme of offerings is poorly planned. Some great interests are all but crowded out. I speak particularly of the American Missionary Society and her auxiliaries, The Board of Church Extension and the Board of Ministerial Relief. The first Sunday in September is Church Extension day. People are still absent on vacations; there has been no opportunity of creating an interest in the offering. In consequence, the work suffers. The Board of Ministerial Relief finds its time of offering disputed by two or three other interests. Its receipts are pitifully small and inadequate. It does not have a fair chance. The annual offering of the American Christian Missionary Society is hopelessly blanketed and smothered between the two great days for Foreign Missions. In March we can do practically nothing, because throughout that month the Foreign Society has the right of way. In April the churches have not recovered from the great strain of the March offering;—indeed, many of them keep that offering open for months in order to reach their full apportionment. The Sunday-schools are already flooded with the literature for Children's Day for Foreign Missions and interest is centered in it, thus making it impossible for Home Missions to get a fair hearing and opportunity. It is my conviction that not one of the three interests of the American Society—missions, church extension, ministerial relief—will ever receive anything like a fair offering, or get an equitable portion of missionary money until a new scheme of missionary days is adopted by our churches and societies. I have canvassed annually for six years for the May Offering for Home Missions and know thoroughly the conditions existing in the churches at that season of the year. I DESPAIR EVER SEEING AN ADEQUATE OFFERING FOR HOME MISSIONS TAKEN IN MAY, BETWEEN THE TWO GREAT ANNUAL OFFERINGS FOR FOREIGN MISSIONS.

I therefore recommend that the brethren appoint a large, impartial, representative and competent committee, whose task it shall be to consider faithfully all our organized interests, and report at the next annual convention a new and better scheme of offerings, which, we hope, will hurt none; will, if possible, prove of advantage to all, but will at least, help some of those which now suffer because of their poor location.

BUSINESS MEN AND HOME MISSIONS.

God endows some men with a genius for discovery and invention; others with a gift of writing or public utterance, but endows a vastly larger number with the capacity of making money.

When did the Lord teach us that the man whose ability for writing or for public speaking should dedicate all his ability to the work of the Lord, and that the others were under no such obligation? When will business men see that as preachers pour out the talent of their lives in the services of their fellow men, so the business men are to pour out the treasuries of gold and silver for the advancement of the cause of Christ?

The consecration of our wealth is one of the most crying needs in the church of God to-day, and we, who are in convention assembled, are far behind many of our religious neighbors in this particular grace. In the name of the Lord, we plead with our prosperous brethren to do far more than bring a full tithe into the storehouse. We urge them to bring all that can be spared, and pour it into the treasuries of the societies and colleges, in order that by the mammon of wealth, the kingdoms of this world may become the kingdom of our Lord and His Christ.

We wish to commend the example of two business men to the prayerful consideration of ten thousand others of our brethren. In addition to the rich gifts made annually for all good works, Brother Thomas W. Phillips, of New Castle, Pa., sent us during the year just closing $1,000 as a personal offering for Home Missions. At the ordinary rate, this would insure the support of three of our workers for a whole year. We have hundreds of men who could easily spare this amount annually.

Bro. Fred. A. Doeller, of Columbus, Ind., who is not a man of wealth, contributes to THE AMERICAN CHRISTIAN MISSIONARY SOCIETY, in addition to all his other gifts, $750 per year for the support of Bro. John A. Stevens, evangelist. Brethren with ten times his wealth and income are not giving a tithe of this amount for the extension of the Kingdom.

One of the greatest sources of income of the Missionary Societies of the various denominations, is personal gifts from prosperous and rich men. Our Centennial Year ought to see 5,000 of these prospered individuals supporting, both at home and abroad, men who continually proclaim the unsearchable riches of our Lord Jesus Christ.

Numerous other brethren give just as liberally according to their means, as these two brethren, but we cite these as examples worthy of imitation on the part of the prosperous and rich.

AN EXAMPLE.

Brother Charles Reign Scoville, Evangelist, has sent us $300 with which to support an evangelist in weak churches. There are not many of our preachers who are able to contribute so much. There are some, however, who can. To them we commend this example of consecration. To those who are blessed by great possessions, we the more earnestly commend it. One such Example ought to call forth a thousand instances of large-hearted beneficence.

THOSE THAT ARE ASLEEP.

In the providence of our Father our workers have, in the main, been preserved in health and strength throughout the year. They have been able to prosecute their work with vigor and dispatch. For the goodness of God, to all these brethren, we devoutly return thanks.

In the departure of MILTON WELLS, long of Wisconsin, but recently of Iowa, we have been deprived of the presence and councils of one of the venerable men who came down to us from a former generation. He served well his country, his brethren and his God.

G. L. BROKAW, of Iowa, is among those gathered to his fathers. His labors in in several states as evangelist and preacher, were rich and fruitful. In Iowa he was editor, evangelist and secretary. "He was a good man and filled with the Holy Spirit."

There fell asleep in Jacksonville, Fla., a brother, T. H. BLENUS, who has been identified for many years with the work on the Atlantic Seaboard. He served congregations from Nova Scotia to Florida.

J. E. BUTLER passed away at W. Rupert, Vt. He was a man who spoke out bravely against all wrong and who allied himself with every reform and humanitarian movement.

In exactly one month the Wheeling Island Church, W. Va., lost two of its ministers. BRO. S. G. NAYLOR, who had closed a fruitful ministry there, went to his reward July 28th. One month from that day, the minister in charge, C. MANLY RICE, passed beyond. He was much beloved and was cut off in the midst of a splendid work.

W. T. TIBBS, Mt. Sterling, Ky., also rested from his labors, but his good works remain.

Texas lost, in B. B. SANDERS, a "soldier of renown." He was a great worker and a man of the most sterling qualities of character. His life is an inspiration to a great host of younger men.

"He giveth His beloved sleep."

The following persons, who have been gathering to their fathers within the last year, have honored the Lord with their substance by giving THE AMERICAN CHRISTIAN MISSIONARY SOCIETY, during their life, money on the Annuity Plan to be used for the prosecution of the work of the Lord:

Henry E. Jackson, Bishop, Georgia; went to his reward October 29, 1905.

Mrs. Mary E. Sherman, Salem, New York; departed this life November 11, 1905.

Mrs. Amelia Spooner, Bowling Green, Ohio; passed up higher March 28, 1906.

Mrs. Elizabeth I. Jones, Columbus, Indiana; went to her reward May 13, 1906.

Nathaniel and Malvina A. Petit, Metz, Indiana, have both passed away within the last missionary year.

The good that all these have done will continue to live after them. It can not be interred with their bones. For these, and others who have forwarded the work of God's grace with earthly means, we praise Him in the day of this annual assembly.

"FINALLY."

Your Acting Board reports that as we have seen our duty during the year, we have sought to do the work so as to have a conscience void of offence to God and man. We have been called upon to do hard things. From them we have not shrunk. We present this report with full conviction that in the circumstances we have done what, at the time, was best for all concerned. We await with confidence, your approval in the Convention at Buffalo.

We are more and more impressed with the importance and magnitude of this work which presses upon us daily from every point of the compass. The problem of deciding which places need immediate help becomes increasingly difficult yearly.

The best solution is a five-fold greater fund. For such an adequate fund we call on all the churches, Sunday-schools and societies to give this great work a better hearing and a greater offering than ever. We urge the prosperous and rich to make great gifts while living, and in their wills to devise liberal things for the evangelization of America, to the end that from this redeemed and enlightened land may be sent forth His light and truth to all who sit in darkness even to the uttermost parts of the earth.

Thanking you for the confidence reposed in us by making us your representatives in the administration of a great trust, and praising God for His gracious providence and guidance throughout another year, we are your fellow servants in the Lord.

CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR DEPARTMENT.

The San Francisco Convention recommended that Idaho be made the field of operation for the Missionary enterprise of our Christian Endeavor Societies, and that they be urged to take up this great work with enthusiasm. In striving to carry out the above recommendation, the November number of the "AMERICAN HOME MISSIONARY" was made a special "Idaho" number. In order to interest and enlist our young people in this new field, this paper, containing full information, was sent out generally to our Christian Endeavor Societies. Our motto was:

"$5,000 from 500 C. E. Societies for Idaho."

Letters were sent out and pledges solicited. At once the young people proved their interest by pledging their support for Idaho.

The May number of the "AMERICAN HOME MISSIONARY" was also given specially to our new field and its interests.

The last Lord's Day in June was set apart in our C. E. calendar as "Idaho Day." Special programs and literature were prepared to help in the observance of the day and many societies reported one of the best meetings in their history on that evening.

While our motto has not been realized, we are glad to report an increase of fifty-three in the number of societies contributing this year for Home Missions. The total number being three hundred and eighty, and the amount contributed $2,185.17. The society making the largest gift was Euclid Avenue, Cleveland, Ohio—$50.00. We are truly grateful to all our Endeavorers for their help and earnestly solicit a continuance of same.

It is the intention of this Department to keep before our young people the motto "$5,000 from 500 C. E. Societies for Idaho," until our hopes are realized.

The need in this Western state is indeed great. The Corresponding Secretary of Southern Idaho writes: "These are days of opportunity here and days when foundations can be laid for a self-supporting state work. What R. C. Barrow was to the beginning of the Nebraska work, what J. B. Vawter was to Iowa in forming and strengthening the state work, while creating new churches, is our need for Idaho. Please name the man and make his employment a possibility."

If only our young people see this golden opportunity within their reach, we feel sure they will put forth an earnest effort to grasp it and cause this State, so rich in possibilities, to become Immanuel's land.

"He that soweth sparingly, shall reap also sparingly, and he that soweth bountifully shall reap also bountifully."

The work accomplished by the gifts of our Christian Endeavorers during the year just closed was four new congregations organized, with an aggregate of 177 members. Two of these churches have arranged for pastors and the other two will soon do so. It is expected that all four will be housed before Spring. This means so much for the people in our western state. Many of them have gone from our churches in the Eastern and Middle States, and are completely isolated as far as Church affiliation is concerned. Let us help to establish churches in Idaho and let us help to win souls for Christ in Idaho.

Our Centennial year, as a church, draws near. It will be here in 1909. Every disciple of Christ is interested in a proper observance of this Centennial. Our young people should have a large part in making this celebration the greatest in the religious world.

Think you, it would be asking too much of our more than 4,000 Endeavor Societies to place before them this motto:

"$10,000 from our Endeavorers for Idaho in the year 1909."

We have been urging through the columns of the Young People's Department of the "AMERICAN HOME MISSIONARY" the formation of Home Mission Study Classes. We feel that if we were fully cognizant of the conditions in the home land, if through the study of the field at our door, we could be made to realize the great need and see the wide open door of opportunity so close at hand, larger gifts would be forth-coming.

Howard B. Grose's book, "Aliens or Americans," is a splendid work on the incoming millions. It is being studied by the young people of all religious bodies. It is our earnest desire to have very many Home Mission Study Classes formed among our own young people this winter. Some have already organized and others are planning to do so.

It is certainly a glad privilege to submit this report to you. We praise Him for the results accomplished and thank Him that we may be the humble instruments in His hands to speed the coming of that day when all shall know Him from the least to the greatest.

Encouraged by the past, may our Endeavorers press forward with renewed zeal and a greater determination to do more and better work for Jesus in our own home land.

SARAH BIRD DORMAN,

Superintendent of Young People's Department.

PRAYER MEETING.

B. A. Abbott, P. Y. Pendleton, R. W. Abberley, A. C. Gray, E. L. Day, A. W. Taylor, Vernon Stauffer.

The Statistical Report was then presented by Brother G. A. Hoffmann, our statistician, and on motion it was adopted.

STATISTICAL REPORT

In order to quiet discussion and satisfy the brotherhood as to the accuracy of our statistics presented from year to year by your secretary I ask your pardon for the present enlarged statement.

Statistics are most easily gathered by parties who have personal knowledge of the things desired. For this reason the United States Government appoints its census gatherers to act in the neighborhood where they live and are acquainted. District supervisors watch, correct and tabulate the work of local employes. These district supervisors in turn confer with State and National Superintendents in order that errors may be properly investigated and reduced to the minimum. In this way statistics concerning any branch of the United States Government are perfectly reliable and can be depended upon for all practical purposes.

In securing church statistics we have greater difficulties.

First—Because many of our church clerks keep a very poor record of their membership.

Second—Many of our church boards are indifferent to the importance of statistical information and therefore do not instruct their church clerks to make the proper reports.

Third—There is no pay to anyone for this work.

Fourth—It often requires from five to ten years for a new State Secretary to secure sufficient experience to properly supervise the reports he receives from churches, counties, or districts in his state.

Our instructions to State Secretaries are: "Where there is no local organization between churches secure statistics direct from the congregation. Where there is city organization secure your reports from this organization for that city. Where there is county or district organization secure your reports through these organizations wherever it is possible, and whenever it can be done have these reports published through these local organizations in connection with their annual minutes. In states where reports are not so published print them in connection with the state minutes." These published reports serve as a correction to any error that may be made. In a number of states these instructions are followed and accurate results are secured.

As there is some question also as to the comparative growth of the Disciples of Christ, I have prepared a table for your perusal on this question. The presentation of our statistical tables has not always satisfied all of our brotherhood at all times, and your secretary is not at all surprised at this. The table that I wish to bring before you shows the number of Communicants in the various religious bodies in the years of 1890 and 1905, together with the gain percentage of each body. It must not be forgotten when we compare the Disciples of Christ with others that their gains over and beyond all others are being made without close national organization and with a great lack of funds to aid young men in their preparation for the ministry as well as properly endowed colleges for this purpose. In addition, there is no foreign immigration to swell the ranks of the Disciples of Christ.

	1890	1905	% Gain
Baptists (13 bodies)	3,594,093	4,974,047	38
Catholics, Roman	6,228,579	10,785,496	73
Christian Connection	90,718	101,597	12
Congregationalist	512,771	687,042	34
Disciples of Christ	641,051	1,242,690	94
Dunkards (4 bodies)	73,845	116,311	57
Evangelical (2 bodies)	133,313	166,978	25
Friends (4 bodies)	107,218	120,415	12
German Evangelical Synod	187,482	222,002	19
Latter Day Saints (2 bodies)	167,125	344,247	100
Lutherans (22 bodies)	1,223,283	1,841,346	51
Methodist (17 bodies)	4,588,662	6,429,815	40
Presbyterian (12 bodies)	1,278,332	1,728,871	35
Protestant Episcopal	533,054	827,847	55
Reformed (3 bodies)	319,458	405,022	27
United Brethren (2 bodies)	225,158	274,102	22
Unitarians	67,749	71,000	6
Universalists	49,224	53,641	9

As much is said about the growth of the Universalists and the Unitarians we thought it well to add them, although neither have 100,000 members. In fact their membership in 1830, seventy-five years ago, was nearly as large as it is now. The six great bodies which have over a million members each show gains as follows: Disciples of Christ, 94%; Roman Catholic, 73%; Lutheran, 51%, Methodist, 40%; Baptist, 38%, and Presbyterians, 35%. It will be noticed that there is but little difference in the growth of the denominations of Baptist, Methodist and Presbyterians. The Disciples of Christ show more than double the gains of these bodies. The Lutherans gain more rapidly than the three mentioned above. Their gains have come largely from Germany, Denmark, Sweden and Norway, together with their children, who remain in the faith. They have but few additions from conversions. The Roman Catholics, of course, have their gains from foreign immigration. Nearly two-thirds of the immigrants who land on our shores at the present are Catholics. If all who have landed on the shores of the United States had remained such and their descendants had remained in the faith we should now have at least 30,000,000 inhabitants of the Catholic faith, and possibly more.

In regard to the statistics of the Disciples of Christ I would say that there are thousands of members outside of our church organization and even in the church membership of denominations who were turned to God under the preaching of our ministry and for a time were in fellowship in one of the Churches of Christ who firmly believe with us in all essentials but for various causes, which seem sufficient to them, are now worshiping with others or have become non-affiliated in church work.

The great need is more ministers to shepherd our smaller and weaker churches. Men who will be willing to labor and live in our country and village churches. Our schools are doing well for their opportunities but their financial basis is insufficient to render aid to many young men who would cheerfully preach the Gospel if they could secure the proper training.

Allow me to present to you our most remarkable growth of the past century, brought down to 1905:

1830	10,000
1840	40,000
1850	118,000
1860	225,000
1870	350,000
1880	473,000
1890	641,000
1900	1,025,000
1905	1,242,000

The growth in some departments of the church has even been more surprising than the gains in members. On account of the abuse of church organization during many centuries the Disciples in their beginning were exceeding fearful that church co-operation for missions would degenerate into the same corruptive and church despotic condition as formerly. Hence it required many years to demonstrate the fact that missionary organization and activity was both the force and work that would keep the children of God from the narrowness produced by creeds and the corrupting influence so prevalent among non-missionary religious bodies.

	1890	1895	1900	1905
Churches	8,096	9,169	10,101	11,110
Ministers	4,039	4,929	5,737	6,675

Whole No. of churches contributing to missions	2,764	4,764	5,556	6,415

* Partly estimated.

Bear in mind that this table represents the growth of fifteen years only. Reliable statistics back of 1890 in a good portion of this table could not be secured. There is one thing in connection with this table—the very work, that is, National Missionary organization, of which we were most fearful, has prospered and gained most rapidly. Here is a multiplication of nearly 350% in the receipts of the treasury in fifteen years. In these reports we only count funds actually received and expended by the treasury of our National Societies.

Another interesting thing is the comparative growth in different parts of our country known as our Missionary Fields. Frequent appeals come to the AMERICAN CHRISTIAN MISSIONARY SOCIETY with more or less urgency and all claiming to be the field which will return the greatest results for our Master's Kingdom for the labor expended. I have made three groups of the states in which our cause is not strong and present to you the membership, growth and gain for ten years. The eastern group includes, District of Columbia, Maryland and West Virginia, thirteen states in all. The South-eastern group includes Virginia, Tennessee, Louisiana, etc., nine states in all. The western group includes all prairie, mountain and Pacific States, except Texas, west of the Missouri or Kansas City, seventeen in number. None of the Central States, with large memberships, are included.

	1896	1906	Gain	% Gain
Eastern group	42,307	66,090	23,183	55
South-eastern group	112,581	132,683	20,101	18
Western group	116,900	162,076	45,176	40

Do not forget that this table represents a ten years' gain in these several sections. Although the gains in Delaware, New Jersey and six New England States are comparatively nothing, the other four, including the District of Columbia, have made very large gains. Our membership and churches in these states, while few in proportion to the immense population, are among the most vigorous in the brotherhood. While the South-eastern States have made only eighteen per cent. gain in the ten years indicated there is good growth in some parts of them. But, taken together, these districts show the least activity and the smallest gains of any great district among us. The great western field, comprising over one-third of the territory of the United States, has made a considerable but not nearly so large a gain as the emigration of our people to that part of the country would indicate. Our losses in the far West are simply enormous. Our AMERICAN CHRISTIAN MISSIONARY SOCIETY is without the means to answer the calls of this great field, and in all this immense territory there are but three feeble efforts made as yet to educate young men for the Christian Ministry—one in Oregon, one in California, and the other at Bethany, Nebraska. These schools report seventy-one students studying for the Christian Ministry, where there should be not less than four hundred to properly supply the needs of this great field. It is sad to think that hundreds of inviting opportunities to build up splendid churches are perishing before our eyes on account of lack of means to answer these calls of our Master.

The year just closing has, in some respects, made an excellent record. It has been remarkable for the large gains in many larger towns and cities and the quietness in many of the country churches. Could we have gained alike in the country churches as well as the town churches, we could report one of the largest gains in our history. Where large gains are reported we generally find upon examination an efficient and active ministry. Our ministry among and for the country churches is passing away. As yet we have nothing to take its place.

Our gain in membership at the present time is a little below three per cent. per annum. The increase of the churches is about one and one-half per cent. While this growth is greater than the average Protestant religious body in the United States it is not as large as it might be. There are several conditions which are little understood by the ministry or the brotherhood at large which retard the growth of the great brotherhood known as Disciples or Churches of Christ. If most of these conditions could be removed and the spirit of criticism in our religious journals for real or apparently injurious methods of doing things could be softened and strengthened with the spirit and love of the Master our growth as a body of Disciples would demonstrate to the world about us that we have the favor of God and are led by the truth of the Master. It would bring about more earnest investigation, which would bring astonishment, delight and acceptance of the New Testament truth in many quarters. The most hopeful dream of the Pioneers would be realized. Due credit must be given for the immense work done for the cause of our Master by our religious journals, some of which have attained the very highest rank among the leading journals of their class, but why should they not better understand one another, and like men of the same craft be banded together to represent the greatest cause that the God of Heaven intrusted to man. The power and influence of the press in this age is the greatest living force that men have yet created. The pulpit speaks to hundreds, the press to thousands. Hence its importance can not be underestimated. This is an immense factor in the growth of our people.

At the close of the year on September 30th, the reports received indicated that our statistics stand as follows:

	1905	1906
Churches	11,110	11,198
Communicants	1,238,515	1,269,591
Bible-schools	8,761	8,952
Enrolled in Bible-schools	850,500	870,622
Ministers	6,675
Gain in membership for 1906		31,076

The following table shows a gain in missionary receipts of $60,982. This is a most important gain, being about 7 per cent.

MISSIONARY RECEIPTS.

Foreign Christian Missionary Society	$ 268,727
Christian Woman's Board of Missions.....	206,533
American Christian Missionary Society	103,415
Board of Church Extension	85,597
State and District Missions	241,217
Miscellaneous Missions	30,000	$ 935,509

EDUCATION AND BENEVOLENCE.

Buildings and Endowments of Schools	375,000
National Benevolent Association	91,795
Ministerial Relief	22,750
Kentucky Widows' and Orphans' Home	10,000	499,545

LOCAL CHURCH WORK.

Ministerial Support	4,475,000
Incidental Church expenses	1,100,000
Church Buildings	750,000
Church and Bible-school Literature	350,000	6,575,000
		$8,010,054

Another year's gain like the present will bring our missionary receipts up to $1,000,000. Our motto, however, should be $1,500,000 for missions and 1,500,000 of Disciples by 1909. If such a report could be made at Pittsburg three years hence it would have more power to stimulate and electrify the churches to greater efforts than anything that we could do. We are now giving seventy-five cents per member for missions through our missionary treasuries. This is commendable for a body of people who live in the Middle West and of whom not more than one-fourth have any fellowship whatever in these offerings. This seems ridiculously small, but it is nevertheless true. Not more than one-half the churches make an offering and not more than one-half of the membership participate where the offering is taken. But why not make it one dollar per member? Give the Foreign Society $400,000, the Ladies' $250,000, the Home Society $200,000, the Church Extension Board $150,000, and the State Societies $300,000. This would in a measure for the time being help our Boards to answer the worthy calls.

Our schools are prospering and gathering strength from year to year. We have sixteen colleges and universities in which young men are being trained for the Christian Ministry. These are all doing commendable work. The teachers in these schools are making most heroic efforts and practicing every self-denial to develop a Christian Ministry worthy of the great cause that they represent. Cotner and Christian University combined have but $40,000 endowment for all purposes or an income from all endowments of not more than $2,400 for the two schools and yet these two schools have 107 studying for the Christian Ministry. We also have seven Bible Chairs or schools doing excellent mission work in connection with State Universities. These schools have an endowment fund of $200,000 and about fifty young men preparing for the ministry. One-half of this number is in the Eugene Divinity School. As a mission work, these Bible Chairs are a great success. They have also prepared a few young men for the Christian Ministry, but we are compelled to depend almost entirely on our own schools, manned and equipped in every department by our own people.

The future outlook for our Master's Kingdom is full of hope. Taking the states of Ohio, Kentucky, Indiana, Illinois, Missouri, Kansas and Oklahoma, and we find that the Disciples of Christ are the strongest religious force in these states when taken together. This is the heart of the nation, through which the mighty arteries of commerce are flowing. This is God's Country, the most productive valley in the world, in which the Lord has established his people. His blessings have fallen upon us in showers. His loving kindness and tender mercies have filled us with joy. Shall not our hearts and hands; yea, our whole lives respond in gratitude and in the Master's name reap the great harvest of souls that awaits our coming?

G. A. HOFFMANN.

Brother G. W. Muckley then presented the report of the Board of Church Extension, which was also adopted. He stated that since coming to the Convention Brother C. J. Tannar had reported the eighth named loan fund for this year given by the Central Christian Church of Detroit.

The report of the Home Board was presented by Wm. J. Wright, and adopted.

Francis M. Biddle, recording secretary of the General Board of Managers, then presented the resolutions recommended by that Board, the following, of which were adopted:

That a committee be appointed to ascertain whether the Board of Church Extension can legally continue its work should it separate itself from the AMERICAN CHRISTIAN MISSIONARY SOCIETY, and in event this should be found impracticable, to ascertain whether the Board of Church Extension can be legally empowered to execute all papers required in its work, said committee to report result of its findings with recommendations to this Board at its next meeting."

"That a committee be appointed to consider the revision of the Constitution."

"We earnestly recommend to the Board of Ministerial Relief that they employ a secretary for all his time, and adopt such other means as is necessary to present the work more fully to all the churches in order that not less than $25,000 be raised by next year."

"Whenever any member of the Acting Board of Managers may remove from the city of Cincinnati, to any point within the limits of the states of Ohio, Indiana or Kentucky, the Acting Board may pay the traveling expenses of such member or members, so as to enable them to attend the meetings of said Board, provided in the judgment of the Board it may be deemed wise to retain such member or members."

"We recommend the appointment of a large, impartial, representative and competent committee, whose task it shall be to consider faithfully all our organized interests, and report at the next annual convention a new and better scheme of offerings, which, we hope, will hurt none; will, if possible, prove of advantage to all, but will at least help some of those which now suffer because of their poor location."

An address, "God's Purpose and Plans in Home Missions," was delivered by E. F. Daugherty, Wabash, Ind.

The report of the Committee on Union with the Free Will Baptists was then presented by Brother S. H. Bartlett. It was received and filed. An address, "Higher Ideals in Christian Stewardship," was then delivered by H. D. Smith, of Hopkinsville, Ky.

Various announcements were made, and the benediction was pronounced by A. McLean.

The Committee on Christian Union reported as follows:

TO THE ANNUAL CONVENTION OF THE AMERICAN CHRISTIAN MISSIONARY SOCIETY, IN SESSION AT BUFFALO, N. Y.

The committee appointed to confer with committees of other religious bodies on the subject of Christian Union, begs to report as follows:

The committees of Free Baptists and Disciples to consider the matter of union between the two religious bodies, met at the First Free Baptist Church in Brooklyn, N. Y., at 7:30 p. m., Thursday, November 14, 1905, and continued their sessions in the forenoon and afternoon of November 15, and for one hour in the afternoon of November 16. There were present, on the part of the Free Baptists: A. W. Anthony, H. M. Ford, George H. Ball, J. W. Mauck, L. M. Webb, Z. A. Space, G. F. Mosher, R. D. Lord, Thomas Stacy and E. W. Akin. On the part of the Disciples: regular members, S. H. Bartlett, J. M. Van Horn, R. Moffett, M. E. Harlan; as proxies for absent members, J. H. Garrison, F. D. Power, M. L. Bates, B. S. Ferrall, J. P. Lichtenberger, S. T. Willis, C. C. Rowlison, W. T. Moore; as invited guests: H. L. Willett, C. A. Young, M. L. Streator and Dr. E. H. Long. Several of these were delegates to the Inter-Church Conference, held in New York the same week. After a brief season of prayer, S. H. Bartlett was chosen to preside over joint meeting and H. M. Ford as secretary. X

R. Moffett, Secretary of the Disciples' Committee, presented a brief statement setting forth:

1. The limitations binding the Free Baptist Committee, viz.: That no final action on the subject of union can be taken except by their general conference, their denominational and incorporate head, the next appointed meeting to be held in the fall of 1907; that no overture for union could be considered that did not include the entire denomination, and that did not conserve all legal and moral obligations entered into by the general conference.

2. That the Disciples, as a religious body, were not incorporate, and probably never would be; that their local churches were incorporate, as also their colleges, benevolent associations and missionary organizations—that the only corporate body represented by the Disciples' Committee is the AMERICAN CHRISTIAN MISSIONARY SOCIETY, constituted in such manner as by general consent enable them to speak for the Disciples as a whole; that the Disciples had their origin in a desire for union of the Lord's people by a return to the Church of Christ as planted and trained by the apostles of our Lord; that this religious body, now numbering over a million in the United States, came into fellowship by a full and hearty confession of faith in "Jesus as the Christ the Son of the Living God"; that this proposition carried with it all other important Bible truths, and that as a people they were as closely united in doctrine and practice, as any other religious body. The statement closed, asking the joint meeting to discuss three questions:

1. Is union between the Free Baptists and Disciples practicable at the present time?

2. What are the obstacles to such a union?

3. How may the obstacles be removed?

The joint meeting accepted these questions as covering the ground to be canvassed. The president announced that these questions were open to discussion. Dr. Ball said he thought the greatest obstacle to union was the fact that the two religious bodies knew so little about each other. This remark led to many suggestions, by different members, as to how such a condition might be changed—by interchange of pulpits, union conventions, and by tracts and by other literature. Dr. Anthony suggested that in order to the fullest acquaintance, the Free Baptists and especially their committee must know, first, The doctrine of the Disciples; second, Their polity; third, Their genius and spirit; fourth, Their organizations; fifth, The legal aspects of these organizations.

It was suggested that all these elements can readily be furnished by published literature. After much discussion it was finally agreed that a committee to consider each of these elements be formed and report after a recess of fifteen minutes. It was evidently too great a task to perform in so short a time. At a subsequent meeting it was agreed that these committees should report at the next joint meeting. No time or place was set for this joint meeting.

The committees formed were, viz.: "On Doctrine," Garrison, Ball, Moffett; "On Polity," Space, Lord, Power, Bates, Ferrall, Harlan; "On Genius and Spirit," Van Horn, Lichtenberger, Ford, Stacy, Mauck, Van Akin, Rowilson, Moore, Willett; "On Legal Aspects," Streator, Willis, Anthony and Young.

The next week the Free Baptist Committee held a joint meeting with the committee of the Baptist Church in the same city. We learned in our conference with the Free Baptists that a very large majority of the body preferred union with the regular Baptists.

Concerning this conference Dr. Ball writes us as follows:

"The result of our meeting with the Committee of Twelve appointed by the Baptists was a great surprise. We found them more than ready to declare for perfect liberty in each local church, to regulate the matter of communion and all other local affairs. They also freely express a wish for a conference with your Committee of Twelve on the question of union, and express the hope that the Disciples and Baptists might speedily become one body. This entirely changes the order we have been pursuing. Our hope and expectation has been that the first union effected would be between the Disciples and Free Baptists, but now it appears that the first union will be with the Baptists and then with the Disciples.

"Since our meeting in Brooklyn I have seen several leading Baptist Ministers not on the Committee of Twelve, and they ardently desire that this consummation should be speedily reached.

"The Baptists will act on the basis unanimously adopted at Brooklyn next May at their general convention in Philadelphia. My hope is that an extra session of our general conference will be called immediately after their May meeting in case the basis is adopted."

In this connection extracts from a late letter from Dr. Anthony, chairman of the committee, will be of interest.

"The Baptists, at their anniversaries last May in Dayton, Ohio, acted favorably upon the report which their committee on conference with Free Baptists presented, and referred further consideration of the subject to their Home Missionary Society; and since then correspondence has been had with a committee of their Home Missionary Board. Just now a conference of the two committees some time in October is under consideration. I can not say now whether that conference will be held or not, nor can I foretell the outcome of the deliberations.

"This is, however, quite certain, that in a matter of such a character and of so much importance, wherein a great many people of diversified preferences and varying temperaments are concerned, great moderation and circumspection will be required, and hasty and precipitate action must be avoided.

"As to further negotiations, with the committee of the Disciples, I am confident that all my associates have appreciated the privileges of closer acquaintance with the members of your committee, have admired your broad and virile activity and missionary zeal, and have recognized the many broad and comprehensive features of your position in theology, and polity, but I am frank to say, though it must be understood as my own opinion, and in no sense official, that I see no immediate prospect of successful negotiations looking toward a union with our Disciple brethren. I think this is the general feeling both in our committee and in our denomination.

"We do not wish, however—I do not—to close all doors for further correspondence or conference. We wish to be ready for the leading of the good spirit, wherever and whenever He may lead."

It will be seen, therefore, that shortly after our own conference of last fall, a meeting of representative men of Baptist and Free Baptist communions, seemed to indicate that union of these bodies would be an easy and primary achievement. Surely we could have no desire to hinder or in any way interfere with such a movement. Indeed, an enlarged experience has led some members of your committee to feel that the main body of our Baptist brethren may be quite as hopefully approached with proposals for more completely united work as any other. While in some sections our respective bodies are antagonistic on some points, and far apart, it is well known that in other regions our congregations so easily agree in all vital matters of faith and practice that a divided fellowship and effort seems abnormal and inexcusable. To this larger union we feel that our brethren should give prayer and care.

The growth toward common views of truth and duty is constant on the part of those who really hold an open Bible. The trouble in this day is, that denominational lines are so close drawn and varied, communions are so closely kept, that each develops history and tradition and tone and temper—a culture which is peculiarly its own, and which it values above all else. To really associate, to so meet that we share in a common Christian life, that is largely our problem for the future.

In this land and in foreign lands this leaven of union is working. Not long ago we saw a circular, bearing the names of prominent men of the English and non-conformist churches of England, in which they comment on "The Paralyzing Effect of Divisions on the Moral Forces of Christianity," and say, "We profoundly feel that our Lord Jesus Christ meant us to be one visible fellowship." The Wesleyan, Presbyterian and Congregational Churches of Canada have been considering the feasibility of uniting in one church. Early last spring the Missionary Review of the World published the following editorial: "The United Church of Canada is pronounced by some a movement so extraordinary as to find no parallel for centuries. The joint committee of Presbyterian, Congregational and Methodist churches have published a report that, they find, neither in doctrine nor polity, any insuperable obstacles to organic union." All indications point to the certainty of the formation of the united Church of Canada. In this country the Congregationalists, United Brethren and Protestant Methodists have nearly completed visible union. The Free Baptists of New Brunswick and Nova Scotia have completed a visible union with the Baptists of those provinces, and in this country the committees of these two bodies have agreed on a basis of union, as stated elsewhere in this report. Last November 1,500 representatives of thirty Christian bodies, aggregating eighteen million Communicants, met in Carnegie Hall, New York, to hold sessions for one week and talk and pray and plan over this absorbing question of Christian Union. This fact itself is deeply significant, however much or little we may approve of the plan adopted. This conference has said to Christendom: "In the Providence of God, the time has come when it seems fitting more fully to manifest the essential oneness of the Christian Churches of America, in Jesus Christ as their Divine Lord and Saviour, and to promote the spirit of fellowship and co-operation among them." There are brethren on the floor of this Convention who remember the time when no such convention would have been possible and no such expression of mutual confidence and fraternal fellowship would have been heard. The Christian people of this Convention can not but rejoice in the evidence of growth toward, if not to, the oneness for which Jesus prayed. Dr. Chas. Thompson, in his able address before the conference, voiced a universal sentiment when he said: "We must get together in spiritual perception and spiritual experience; we must pray together till the house trembles. We must rejoice together in a Divine Christ, really, not symbolically risen from the dead, and to-day the leader of His Sacramental Host. Then the world will believe, for it will bow before the majority of hearts fused together in the glow of a common passion for a living and conquering Redeemer, the inspiration of a common service to humanity."

The spirit of love and fellowship among the Lord's hosts is growing. Good seed is being sown all over the world, and especially among the missionaries in heathen lands. They feel, as in this land we can not, the great need of united work.

Let us take care to show the grace of a true Christian courtesy toward all who seek to follow our Lord and Saviour. Toward our Baptist brethren we should manifest the fullest possible fellowship. Is it not possible for the union committees, appointed by these two bodies to arrange for holding a Congress at some convenient place at which the delegates may fully discuss the possibility and practicability of the union between these two bodies? Such a joint convocation would be one step toward the union for which our Lord prayed. The organic union of the Christian world must begin with those who are nearest to oneness in doctrine and polity. In seeking and praying for the union of all the people of God we will not always find ourselves cheered and welcomed. But for the world's sake we must hold patiently and persistently to the desire that all may be simply one in Christ and for our own sakes we must keep the passion for unity. It will save us from Phariseism and bigotry; and the deep hunger for oneness in itself, will keep us wondrous close to Christ.

We have received during the year for expenses from twenty-one contributors $87.50 and expended in travel, postage and stationery $84.00, leaving a balance of $3.50.

Respectfully submitted,

E. B. WAKEFIELD, Chairman.

R. MOFFETT, Secretary.

Committee on Centennial then presented a report as follows:

"We recommend that THE AMERICAN CHRISTIAN MISSIONARY SOCIETY seek to realize—$250,000 for American Missions in 1909, 1,000 Evangelists in the home field in 1909, 500 churches organized in 1909, 30,000 converts to Christ in 1909, a contribution from every church and from every member of every church in 1909.

To this end the spiritual edification of our people through the faithful proclamation, on the part of all our leaders and workers, not only of the first principles, but of the second principles of the Gospel of Christ.

F. D. POWER,
J. J. HALEY,
J. L. HILL,
I. J. SPENCER,
FINIS IDLEMAN.

The Convention adopted this report.

A report was received from the Standing Committee on Centennial, as follows:

CENTENNIAL OF THE DISCIPLES OF CHRIST.
1809—1909.

Report of the Committee for the Year Ending September 30th, 1906.

Since 1901 we have been brooding over ways and means of making memorable the close of our first century in 1909. Following the San Francisco convention last year the active prosecution of the Centennial Campaign began. Though a year of beginnings, whose work must be largely in surveying rights of way and laying foundations, substantial progress has been made in actual construction. Every interest of the brotherhood shows marked gain over all previous years. The Centennial Committee does not claim the credit for this but believes that it would not have been possible without the Centennial idea and purpose in the hearts of our people and particularly in the souls of the Godly men and women who lead in all the institutions and organizations of the churches. We have tried to assist in all directions, and in the effort have used over 200,000 leaflets, 25,000 circular letters and numerous articles in the papers. Centennial addresses, and even entire sessions, have been features of many state conventions.

It will help us to appreciate the magnitude of the achievements of the past year to recall that in 1902 this committee dared to recommend that our entire annual missionary offerings be increased to one million dollars by 1909. The year just closed shows $935,509 and a rate of increase that will pass one million in 1907, with two years of accumulating momentum ahead!

The committee resident in and about Pittsburg, which was appointed at San Francisco, was consolidated with the standing committee on Centennial, constituted at Omaha, and made the Executive Committee of the whole, making the present membership, after filling vacancies and adding other members, subject to the approval of this convention, as follows:

GENERAL COMMITTEE.

J. H. Garrison, Chairman; W. H. Graham, W. J. Wright, T. W. Phillips, A. McLean, J. G. Slayter, J. H. Mohorter, Mrs. Helen E. Moses, R. S. Latimer, G. W. Muckley, O. H. Phillips, W. R. Warren, Wallace Tharp, M. M. Cochran, T. E. Cramblet.

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE.

T. W. Phillips, Chairman; W. H. Graham, Treasurer; O. H. Phillips, R. S. Latimer, T. E. Cramblet, Wallace Tharp, J. G. Slayter, M. M. Cochran, W. R. Warren.

Pursuant to the San Francisco Convention's action, a secretary was employed beginning December 1, 1905. Since that date Centennial headquarters have been maintained in Pittsburg. This is not to promote the Centennial Convention of 1909, but to assist in the Centennial Campaign of the intervening years. Allegheny County is building a million dollar Convention Hall which, with Duquesne Garden and Carnegie Music Hall, will afford seating for 20,000 people within a few blocks. The Pittsburg brethren and their neighbors in a metropolis of a million people will care for the Convention. But the entire brotherhood must be enlisted in the accomplishment of such things, in the name and by the might of our King, as will justify a Centennial celebration.

To enable immediate inauguration of the campaign, to give it universal scope and at the same time to emphasize the plea for a single and universal Gospel, all the organizations and institutions of the churches were asked for financial support. All the general societies, nine colleges and twenty-three state societies have so far made appropriations, thus forming a practical co-operation of co-operations. Most of them are giving out of their deep poverty and some with a truly heroic devotion. There are assurances of early and favorable action by the rest. How can we plead for union, if we can not unite among ourselves for such great and divine ends?

We have commended to individual churches the following Centennial aims, as suggestive of things they should undertake according to their strength.

CENTENNIAL AIMS FOR CONGREGATIONS.

1. Each one win one.
2. All the church and as many more in the Bible-School.
3. Two Christian papers in every home; one local and the other national.
4. To start a young man in the ministry.
5. To get all our people and as many more to read the New Testament through before January first.
6. To revive and strengthen the mid-week prayer-meeting and all the young people's services.
7. To erect a new church building.
8. To pay off our debt.
9. To start a new Bible-School.
10. To organize another church.
11. To have at least one sermon per year on Annuities and Bequests, and one on Systematic Giving.
12. To double our offering for State Missions; and thus—
13. To meet the State Missionary Board's expense in employing a missionary pastor.
14. To surpass our own best offering for Home Missions in both the church and Bible-School, and by so doing—
15. To maintain Our Own Home Missionary.
16. To double the membership of our Auxiliary to the Christian Woman's Board of Missions, and to make a generous offering to its special Centennial fund.
17. To exceed our apportionment in both the March and Children's Day offerings, and so become a shareholder in a missionary station; or—
18. To support a Living Link on the foreign field.
19. To increase our offering to the Million Dollar Fund for Church Extension, sufficiently—
20. To establish a Named Loan Fund under the Church Extension Board.
21. To observe Ministerial Relief Day, the third Lord's day in December.
22. To observe Education Day, the third Lord's day in January.
23. To sustain and educate an orphan, care for some dependent saint or provide a hospital bed under the National Benevolent Association of the Christian Church.
24. To send at least one representative to every National Convention, and a large delegation to Pittsburg in 1909.

IN GENERAL WE RECOMMEND:

First—That while urging with increased vigor all the regular work of all the interests of the brotherhood we concentrate attention on an effort to add ten million dollars to the permanent assets of churches and church institutions.

Second—This is necessarily an educational movement. We are all disciples of Christ. Let every one make a gift this year to some Christian College, and let our young people enjoy the noble influence of these conservators of light and liberty.

Third—That especial emphasis be placed upon tithing of incomes; that the Lord's work may profit by the prosperity which he sends, instead of suffering thereby as it does now, and that reduced earnings may not result in entire cessation of giving.

Fourth—That particular stress be placed upon effort in all directions to increase the supply of ministers and to develop the ministry of all members. Pray ye, therefore, the Lord of the Harvest.

Fifth—That redoubled pains be given to Bible-School work. We have nothing to teach but the Bible; and nothing to do but to teach the Bible. Only as we magnify this office can we make our gains permanent.

Sixth—That effort be made to organize through the AMERICAN CHRISTIAN MISSIONARY SOCIETY, and under the auspices of the several state societies, a succession of state-wide simultaneous evangelistic campaigns, sweeping successive zones of the country, until all the upper Mississippi valley be completely covered.

Seventh—That in all our stronger states there be a co-operation of the state societies, the A. C. M. S. and the Church Extension Board to plant a church in every unoccupied county seat.

Eighth—That the effort of the A. C. M. S. and C. W. B. M. to plant the cause in states where we are but slightly represented and particularly in all the principal cities of these states be strongly seconded by the whole brotherhood.

Ninth—That the use of Christian literature be greatly increased particularly in the circulation of our newspapers, state and national, missionary magazines, tracts and books.

Tenth—That we endeavor to interest local philanthropists in the establishment of a broadly Christian Hospital in every principal city of the country under the general direction of the N. B. A. C. C.

Eleventh—That the Centennial Campaign be given a place on the program of every state and district convention and that all these meetings, as well as the services of our local churches, be made to ring with the Centennial aims and mottoes.

Twelfth—The quick passing of a hundred years as well as the successive departure of our loved ones must remind us all that we are on a pilgrimage. To-day we are commemorating great deeds and loving hearts; to-morrow we are ourselves subjects of memory. While it is called to-day let us rear, as monuments to those who have gone, chapels, schools, homes and hospitals on the mission fields; churches, hospitals and colleges in the home land, and establish permanent funds for perpetual service in all phases of Christian activity. Thus we shall best remember those who best remembered the Saviour, alleviate the pain and lift the darkness of our fellow pilgrims and perpetuate the influence of our own fleeting lives.

Thirteenth—That not only as many missionaries as possible be enabled to attend the Centennial exercises in 1909, but that representative converts from all lands be brought together, that we may have a foretaste of that day when the great multitude which no man can number, out of every nation and of all tribes and peoples and tongues shall stand before the Throne and before the Lamb.

Fourteenth—That all that is undertaken be done, not for success which may be counted ours, but for the glory of the King whom all the world should acknowledge, and that all rejoicing in aims realized and goals attained be with a humbled sense of our own unworthiness and with everywhere recognition of the truth commemorated in the weekly observance of the Lord's Supper, "By grace we are saved, through faith."

W. R. WARREN, Secretary.

After the presentation of the report it was adopted by the Convention.

Adjournment.

The Tuesday evening session opened with a song and praise service led by O. P. Spiegel and W. E. M. Hackleman. C. J. Tannar, Vice-President, presiding.

There was then introduced to the Convention the new Superintendent of Christian Endeavor, Claude E. Hill, of Alabama.

The Church Extension address of the Convention was then made by Chas S. Medbury, of Iowa. The subject upon which he spoke was "Loyalty to the Loyal."

G. W. Muckley then read a letter from George E. Rand, of North Tonawanda, New York, in which this brother announces his intention to contribute $5,000 to Church Extension on the plan of the named loan fund. A song was rendered by the Buffalo Male Quartette.

The President of the Convention, S. M. Cooper, then delivered his address.

A song by the Netz Sisters followed.

Adjourned with prayer by B. C. Deweese.

The Wednesday morning session was opened with song service, led by Lloyd Darsie, and devotional exercises led by J. O. Shelburne. An address was delivered on "The Challenge of the Canadian Northwest," by Alex. McMillan, of Manitoba.

Following this an address was delivered on "The Greatest Mission Field in the World," by S. T. Willis, of New York City.

BUSINESS SESSION.

The report of the Committee on Recommendations was presented by the Chairman of the Committee as follows:

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON RECOMMENDATIONS.

Your Committee on Recommendations respectfully reports the following:

First—In view of the remarkable development of the Canadian Northwest, in which not less than 57,000 Americans located last year, and having in mind the fact that our churches in this territory are too few and our equipment in every way too meager to do the work demanded, we recommend to the Acting Board that they give immediate and favorable consideration to the appeals of the brethren of the Canadian Northwest, which field seems to us of paramount importance at this time.

Second—Recognizing the loyalty in the face of many difficulties of our brethren in Mississippi, we recommend that their request for a Living Link Evangelist to be supported by the offerings of their own churches be granted, and that if possible the appropriation from the treasury of the Board to the Mississippi work be increased.

Third—Being deeply impressed by the opportunities afforded in work among the Scandinavian people, and feeling that the very leadings of our God indicate that this is our day of opportunity among these people, we recommend that the Board assume the support of Brother C. S. Osterhus in work among the Scandinavian people, and in other lines deal as liberally as possible with this promising field of labor. We further urge that the Board make all possible efforts to inaugurate a work on far broader lines, looking toward the evangelization of all foreign people within our borders.

Fourth—Moved with heartfelt sympathy toward our brethren in California who have suffered so seriously in recent days by earthquake and fire, we recommend that the Board make an effort during the coming year to secure a special fund for the aid of those so sorely in need, and that to this end they adopt such measures as they may deem best. We further recommend that funds used in building or rehabilitating houses of worship be administered by the Board of Church Extension.

Fifth—In view of the demand upon us for larger things in every field of labor as we come to our Centennial Year, and with the thought that no interest should be given greater consideration than of American Evangelization, we recommend that the Acting Board be authorized to employ for the coming three years a Field Secretary, whose special work it shall be to raise funds for the Society.

(Signed)

W. F. RICHARDSON, Chairman,
M. L. BATES,
C. S. MEDBURY.

This report was unanimously adopted by the Convention.

COMMITTEE ON CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR.

Your Committee on Christian Endeavor submits the following report:

1. That the Forward Mission Study Course be extended in every way possible.
2. That literature upon American Missions be selected and that our Societies be enlisted in the study of Home Missions.
3. That the Tenth Legion—or systematic giving—be fostered to the end, that our young people be educated in the fellowship of giving.
4. That the interdenominational opportunities offered by state and interstate and national conventions of the United Society of Christian Endeavor be used by our young people as in the past, for the furtherance of the mission of God's people.
5. That our Centennial aims be kept before the young people, and that education in our history be promoted in connection with the same.
6. That uniform leaflets on the fundamental principles and plans of Christian Endeavor work adapted to our needs, be prepared by the National Superintendent, to be used by himself and State Superintendents, expenses to be paid out of National Superintendent's expense fund.
7. That a systematic effort be made to enlist all our societies in a campaign of increase and betterment.
8. That pastors be enlisted in the organization of classes in soul winning and personal work to the end that we may have young people who can read the Bible and talk with the unconverted.
9. That our National Superintendent represent all our national interests and societies and see to it that the great army of young people in our communion be symmetrically developed in spiritual exercise and ministration.
10. Our opportunity with the young people of the Society of Christian Endeavor is worthy of so great a people as we, and we would discourage on the one hand any tendency to be a thing apart from the church and, on the other hand, any disposition to suspect our Endeavor hosts of a cooling ardor.
11. We are not unmindful of the faithful work of our National Superintendent, R. H. Waggener, and we express our regret at his announcement of his intention to retire from the work.
12. That the National Superintendent be left free, as in the past, to plan and prosecute his work, to prepare his national program, to have his usual time for program, Saturday night, and that he be furnished money for the necessary expenses of his work.

Submitted in the warmth and hope of Christian Endeavor.

REPORT OF JOINT COMMITTEE ON RESOLUTIONS.

The Joint Committee of the AMERICAN CHRISTIAN MISSIONARY SOCIETY, the Foreign Christian Missionary Society and the Christian Woman's Board of Missions submits the following report:

Whereas, God has graciously preserved us for another year and brought us together in this great Convention with reports of largely increased offerings and of successful work in all our fields and activities, and

Whereas, We recognize that all we have contributed to this good work has been to serve as humble instruments in God's hands, therefore be it resolved,

1. That we praise God for His loving care over us and for the manifold mercies of the year, and for all that has been accomplished at home and abroad.

2. That we extend our thanks to the Churches of Christ, of Buffalo and vicinity, for their careful preparations, perfect in every detail, for our entertainment as a Convention.

3. That we are under special obligations to the local committees for their wise management of this gathering.

4. That we express our high appreciation of the favors shown us by the Delaware Avenue Methodist Episcopal Church in opening their house of worship to many of the sessions of this Convention.

5. That we recognize the fraternal spirit shown by the opening of so many pulpits in this city to our ministers on Lord's Day.

6. That we express our gratitude to the various railroads and steamboat lines for courtesies shown us in transportation.

7. That the hearty and sincere thanks of this Convention be tendered to the newspapers of Buffalo for their generosity in reporting its proceedings. This highly valued courtesy, associated with the beauty of the city and the hospitality of its citizens, has made our stay here most agreeable and pleasant, causing us to hold it in tender remembrance, to leave it with regret, and to return upon the slightest provocation.

8. That in the name "AMERICAN CHRISTIAN MISSIONARY SOCIETY," the word "American" should be understood in its continental, not the national sense, and that the international character of the Society be made more prominent than formerly in its conventions and publications.

9. That as the work of National Superintendent of Christian Endeavor is of equal value to all our national organizations, and since there is some expense for postage, printing, etc., connected with this work, it is our opinion that the Foreign Christian Missionary Society, THE AMERICAN CHRISTIAN MISSIONARY SOCIETY and the Christian Woman's Board of Missions, ought jointly to bear this expense, not to exceed $150 each for the year upon which we are entering.

10. That we give more earnest heed and encouragement to such representative bodies as the Woman's Christian Temperance Union, The Anti-Saloon League, and kindred organizations which are fighting with increasing efficiency and a zeal born of desperation and faith in Almighty God, the great battle of the church and the home against our common foe, the legalized liquor traffic.

11. That we return to the Australian brethren the greetings received from them in this Convention through Brother George T. Walden, and that we assure them of our joy in the excellent work they are doing both in their home churches and in the mission field.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

Signed

MRS. HELEN E. MOSES, for C. W. B. M.

CAREY E. MORGAN, for F. C. M. S.

C. J. TANNAR, for A. C. M. S.

The Convention on motion approved and adopted the report.

COMMITTEE ON CHANGE OF TIME.

A Committee on Change of Time of National Convention, appointed last year at San Francisco, reports as follows:

TO THE AMERICAN CHRISTIAN MISSIONARY SOCIETY.

Brethren: Your committee, to whom was referred the matter of the time of holding our general conventions, begs leave to report as follows: The committee does not find itself unanimous on the question.

One member living in and speaking for the South, urges the month of May or June as best for that section, alleging that October is an especially unfavorable time for business men, farmers, planters, doctors, etc.

Another member of the committee suggests either the last of June, when preachers are leaving for their vacations, or the first week in September, when they are returning to their work. He contends that October is especially bad for business men, for teachers and even for preachers.

Two members of the committee are fully satisfied that upon the whole the present month is the best.

This leaves it for the chairman of the committee to decide and break the tie. He fully recognizes the force of the objections to the present month, but he believes that any other month that might be selected would be equally open to objection. The last week in June has much in its favor, but it is verging on the hot season, and besides so many state and district conventions are held in May and June, together with commencements and other public functions, that the convention-going public are weary of such things. After considerable inquiry among preachers and brethren, he finds no decided trend of sentiment against the time-honored and beautiful month of October. He therefore gives his vote for no change and thus the committee stands a majority for the retention of our present time of meeting.

Respectfully submitted,

J. H. GARRISON,

O. P. SPIEGEL,

C. J. TANNAR,

A. McLEAN,

A. B. PHILPUTT, Chairman.

Committee.

The report was adopted by the Convention.

It was moved and carried that the State Missionary Societies of the several states, in Convention assembled, be requested to take up and consider the question of change in time of our general conventions, and that they report to this Convention one year hence.

The closing address of the Convention, "The America of the Future and Our Contribution to it," was delivered by W. H. Sheffer, of Tennessee.

Final adjournment of Fifty-Sixth Annual Convention of AMERICAN CHRISTIAN MISSIONARY SOCIETY with song and prayer.

W. W. SNIFF, Recording Secretary.
